THE DEATH OF MRS WESTAWAY

Ruth Ware How far can a seaside fortune-teller's skill take her when she wrongfully claims a bequest? £12.99

THE SHEPHERD'S HUT

Tim Winton A dazzling recasting of 'Huckleberry Finn' in Western Australia. £14.99

PUTNEY

Sofka Zinovieff A middle-aged woman revisits the affair she had with one of her parents' friends when she was in her early teens. A skilful, disconcerting novel that spins the reader around. £14.99

MISCELLANEOUS

THE DRUNKEN SAILOR: THE LIFE OF THE POET ARTHUR RIMBAUD IN HIS OWN WORDS

Nick Hayes Hayes's talents as a graphic novelist are once again gleaming here as he takes Rimbaud's autobiographical poem 'Le Bateau Ivre' (in a new translation) and weaves a spell of images to accompany the words. "As I was drifting down indifferent streams...". Shades of Bawden and Ravilious, and miraculous. £20.00

RED THREAD: ON MAZES AND LABYRINTHS

Charlotte Higgins There have been many indifferent books on labyrinths but this will not be one of them. From Homer, Catullus, Virgil and Ovid to Dante, Borges and Sir Arthur Evans, the author of 'Under Another Sky: Journeys In Roman Britain' revels in the circuitous. £25.00

GEORGIAN AND VICTORIAN BOARD GAMES: THE LIMAN COLLECTION

Ellen Liman This is a gorgeous and fascinating book. The games were mostly engraved, printed and hand-coloured, then backed with linen, folding like early maps. Many are educational or moral. The book is copiously illustrated, and has some fold-out pages showing entire games. £55.00

BIRDS IN THE ANCIENT WORLD: WINGED WORDS

Jeremy Mynott Rich, imaginative, beautifully written, and scrupulously researched. £30.00

OUT OF MY HEAD: ON THE TRAIL OF CONSCIOUSNESS

Tim Parks TP's engagement with the ideas of Riccardo Manzotti; typically readable, exploratory, open-minded. £16.99

MIRROR MIRROR: A COLLECTION OF POEMS

Alexander Shibwarg Shura was born in Harbin "like Skidelsky and Yul Brunner", married to the novelist Joan Wyndham, and known and loved by many. At nearly 100, he is still inimitable as a raconteur. This is his first publication. pbk £7.99

MUSIC AS AN ART

Roger Scruton The philosophy of music, Schubert, Rameau, opera, film, etc. Scruton's output is truly polyphonic. £25.00

SHE HAS HER MOTHER'S LAUGH: THE POWERS, PERVERSIONS, AND POTENTIAL OF HEREDITY

Carl Zimmer Zimmer argues that the current emphasis on DNA is obscuring other important strands of heredity and their contribution to identity. £25.00

ART & ARCHITECTURE

EDWARD BAWDEN

James Russell Accompanies exhibition at the Dulwich Picture Gallery. pbk £25.00

CEDRIC MORRIS: ARTIST PLANTSMAN

Andrew Lambirth A slim and delightful book to accompany the Garden Museum's current exhibition which focuses on Morris's jubilant flower paintings. Morris's star rises, finally, and deservedly. £15.00

CEDRIC MORRIS: BEYOND THE GARDEN WALL
