BIOGRAPHICAL

MR ATKINSON'S RUM CONTRACT: THE STORY OF A TANGLED INHERITANCE

Richard Atkinson The author's ancestors made their fortunes through slaves and sugar. The fortune was lost but the letters were preserved: this is a powerful investigation of an Imperial past which is widely shunned. £20.00

OH HAPPY DAY: THOSE TIMES AND THESE TIMES

Carmen Callil CC is the distinguished Australian publisher who founded Virago. Her forebear was transported for seven years for stealing a piece of hemp, but he managed to prosper in Australia. He returned to England 30 years later, found CC's great-great-grandmother, his early love, and took her back to Oz with him. Callil's delving into her antecedents is an extraordinary piece of research, and brings to light the lives of the overlooked and under-privileged. £18.99

THE MYSTERY OF CHARLES DICKENS

A N Wilson Not so much as biography as a sequence of glimpses into the life of this remarkable man, to see how the life gave substance and vitality to the work. £17.99

A GIRL'S STORY

Annie Ernaux Another chronicle from the author of 'The Years', now looking back on her girlhood: a mix of Duras and de Beauvoir. pbk £12.99

FALL OF A SPARROW: VIVIEN ELIOT'S LIFE AND WRITINGS

Ann Pasternak This biographical account of Eliot's controversial widow, and guardian of his flame, is presented alongside her writings. It is published by Faber and therefore includes much original source material. £35.00

I WANT YOU TO KNOW WE'RE STILL HERE: MY FAMILY, THE HOLOCAUST AND MY SEARCH FOR THE TRUTH

Esther Safran Foer Four generations, from Ukrainian shtetls via the Holocaust to influence in Washington DC. The author is the mother of Jonathan S F, whose first novel 'Everything Is Illuminated' (2002) also addressed some of this territory. £16.99

HOUSE OF GLASS: THE STORY AND SECRETS OF A TWENTIETH-CENTURY JEWISH FAMILY

Hadley Freeman The contents of a shoebox in America led the author to discover her grandmother's family, from Picasso in Paris, Dior and Chagall to a farmhouse in the Auvergne, Auschwitz and Long Island. Already hailed as a masterpiece, this is compelling reading. £16.99

FRANKEL: THE GREATEST RACEHORSE OF ALL TIME AND THE SPORT THAT MADE HIM

Simon Cooper Frankel won all fourteen races of his career, trained by Henry Cecil and ridden by Tom Queally. £20.00

HALDANE: THE FORGOTTEN STATESMEN WHO SHAPED MODERN BRITAIN

John Campbell Unjustly ejected from the Liberal government in 1915 as a 'German sympathiser', Haldane's influence on many of our institutions was great, and lasting. £25.00

SICK SOULS, HEALTHY MINDS: HOW WILLIAM JAMES CAN SAVE YOUR LIFE

John Kaag Compelling introduction to Henry James's brother, who wrote 'The Varieties of Religious Experience'. £18.99

THE LAST FOOTMAN

Gillies Macbain Published late last year in Ireland. GN moved to Ireland in the 1960s with a bicycle and tent, hell-bent on getting into scrapes. Many of these star various crumbling Anglo-Irish piles. Funny, scurrilous. pbk £18.00

THE LIFE & TIMES OF MALCOLM MCLAREN: THE BIOGRAPHY

Paul Gorman He started in the World's End shop with Vivienne Westwood; then along came the Sex Pistols... £30.00

THINKING AGAIN

Jan Morris Another slim volume of diaries to follow 'In My Mind's Eye: A Thought Diary' (pbk £8.99). £16.99

VINTAGE ROGER: LETTERS FROM THE POW YEARS

Roger Mortimer 'Lupin's' letters to his friend Peggy Dunne, from captivity, 1940-1944. £16.99

INGE'S WAR: A STORY OF FAMILY, SECRETS AND SURVIVAL UNDER HITLER

Svenja O'Donnell When the author makes an impulsive trip to Koenigsberg, her grandmother - after sixty years' silence on the matter - begins to tell her own wartime story. Deeply moving. £16.99

SIGNATURES: LITERARY ENCOUNTERS OF A LIFETIME

David Pryce-Jones A welcome addition to DPJ's superb first volume of family memoir, 'Fault Lines', which was a rare window on C20th Europe. £20.99

THOSE WHO FORGET: ONE FAMILY'S STORY; A MEMOIR, A HISTORY, A WARNING

Geraldine Schwarz The author's German grandparents were 'Mitlaufer' - those who went with the flow in the Third Reich. They just wanted to forget, to bury it all under the wreckage... In this fascinating book, she explores what happened and what happen when she tried to confront it. £20.00

CLOTHES... AND OTHER THINGS THAT MATTER

Alexandra Shulman A memoir from the former Editor-in-Chief of British Vogue, her trademark white stilettos ever at the ready. £16.99

LOST PROPERTY: MEMOIRS AND CONFESSIONS OF A BAD BOY

Ben Sonnenberg A memoir of privilege and excess pbk £14.99

BLACK SPARTACUS: THE EPIC LIFE OF TOUSSAINT LOUVERTURE

Sudhir Hazareesingh The author of the wonderful 'How The French Think' (pbk £10.99) has written a magnificent biography of the charismatic former slave who became a revolutionary leader in Haiti. After proclaiming the world's first independent black republic, he ended his days in a French prison. £25.00

RATLINE: LOVE, LIES AND JUSTICE ON THE TRAIL OF A NAZI FUGITIVE

Philippe Sands The author of 'East West Street' examines the life of Otto von Wachter, the SS Governor of Galicia, who was indicted for mass murder in 1945 but went to ground in the Austrian Alps for 3 years before dying suddenly in 1949. £20.00

HISTORICAL

LEV'S VIOLIN: AN ITALIAN ADVENTURE

Helena Attlee The marvellous Attlee takes us on the journey, through space and time, of one violin, whose voice "was powerful enough to unbuckle joints". Cremona, Russia, Venice, Alpine forests... (Her last book, 'The Land Where Lemons Grow', about Italy and its citrus fruit, is a great favourite of ours and deservedly a best-seller.) £20.00

AMBASSADORS: THINKING ABOUT DIPLOMACY FROM RICHELIEU TO KISSINGER

Robert Cooper RC is a distinguished British diplomat (and author). In this incisive historical analysis, he considers where problems, personalities and ideas meet. £25.00

A SHORT HISTORY OF RUSSIA: FROM THE PAGANS TO PUTIN

Mark Galeotti A whistle-stop tour, from Ivan to Putin, by one of the world's foremost Russia-watchers. £12.99

MUSSOLINI'S WAR: FASCIST ITALY FROM TRIUMPH TO COLLAPSE, 1935-1943

SOME OF OUR RECENT FAVOURITES

A COMPANY OF SWANS

Eva Ibbotson One in a second trio of reprints of the adored Eva Ibbotson. A young dancer escapes a stifling existence in Cambridge to join a corps de ballet en route to the Manaus Opera House, on the banks of the Amazon. pbk £8.99

MADENSKY SQUARE

Eva Ibbotson One in a second trio of reprints of the adored Eva Ibbotson. A sadder, more grown-up novel than EI's others. The diaries of a dress-maker and arch-observer of her Viennese neighbours, who is hiding secrets of her own in the years before the First World War. pbk £8.99

MAGIC FLUTES

Eva Ibbotson One in a second trio of reprints of the adored Eva Ibbotson. A struggling opera company is hired for a single performance at an Austrian castle, but their under wardrobe mistress has something to hide. pbk £8.99

PARALLEL LIVES: FIVE VICTORIAN MARRIAGES

Phyllis Rose An incisive post-mortem on the state of the Victorian union, told (with a gossip thrill) through the lives of five couples - Thomas Carlyle and Jane Welsh, John Ruskin and Effie Gray, Charles Dickens and Catherine Hogarth, John Stuart Mill and Harriet Taylor and George Eliot and George Henry Lewes. pbk £10.99

THE HITCHHIKER'S GUIDE TO THE GALAXY

Douglas Adams DON'T PANIC! And console yourself that as gloomy as things seem, at least the Earth hasn't been demolished to make way for a new hyperspace bypass. Self-isolation doesn't mean you can't traverse the Galaxy from your bedroom, so grab a towel and shove a Babel Fish in your earhole - I've heard there's a restaurant at the end of the universe that's still taking punters. (Douglas Adams aficionados will be thrilled to learn that this is the 42nd anniversary edition...) pbk £8.99

REBORN: EARLY DIARIES 1947-1963

EMULATING ANTIQUITY: RENAISSANCE BUILDINGS FROM BRUNELLESCHI TO MICHELANGELO

David Hemsoll A well-presented account that balances history with technicalities, and challenges Vasari's idea of a linear, step-by-step assimilation of classical ideas. Focuses on Florence and Rome. Illustrated. £55.00

THE BLUEST EYE

Toni Morrison The story of a young girl growing up just before WW2: the late Morrison's first novel, published in 1970, still outstanding in its fiftieth anniversary year. In telling the 'how', she makes us all consider the 'why'. Brave, unflinching, and beautifully written. pbk £8.99

And lastly two editions of Xavier de Maistre's curious, small masterwork:

VOYAGE AROUND MY ROOM

Xavier de Maistre Blaise Pascal famously said that "all of humanity's problems stem from man's inability to sit quietly in a room alone". In 1790 a young French aristocrat living in Turin was confined to a house arrest for 42 days as a punishment for his involvement in a duel. He dealt with his predicament by writing a wonderfully witty response to it, while wearing pink and white pyjamas. What ensues is a travel book unlike any other. The second part, written years later, 'A Nocturnal Expedition around My Room, is equally droll, learned and entertaining. In addition to the Voyage and Expedition, this edition also includes the dialogue The Leper of the City of Aosta, a preface by Xavier's better-known older brother (the royalist philosopher Joseph de Maistre), and an introduction by Richard Howard. pbk £10.99

A JOURNEY AROUND MY ROOM

Xavier de Maistre Together with A Nocturnal Expedition around My Room only. This edition has a foreword by Alain de Botton. pbk £7.99
