

JOHN SANDOE (BOOKS) LTD

10 Blacklands Terrace, Chelsea, London SW3 2SR

sales@johnsandoe.com

020 7589 9473

www.johnsandoe.com

SUMMER BOOKS 2021

Price and availability may be subject to occasional revision

BIOGRAPHY

BLACK TEACHER

Beryl Gilroy, introduction by Bernardine Evaristo Re-issue of her classic 1976 memoir. Arriving in Britain in 1952 to study child development at the University of London, Gilroy was at first denied teaching positions but eventually became the first black head teacher, in Camden. £12.99

VALENTINE ACKLAND: A TRANSGRESSIVE LIFE

Frances Bingham A biography of the English poet who was, for forty complicated years, the partner of Sylvia Townsend Warner. pbk £15.99

DANTE

Alessandro Barbero Translated from the Italian, this biography marks the 700th anniversary of Dante's death. It brings to life the context in which he wrote. (Barbero's book on Waterloo was excellent.) £20.00

CHURCHILL'S SHADOW: AN ASTONISHING LIFE AND A DANGEROUS LEGACY

Geoffrey Wheatcroft His mistakes as well as his achievements, and a fascinating post-Brexit look at our history since WW2, in which our leaders still vie for Churchill's mythic mantle to legitimize their political aims. £25.00

LAST WALTZ IN VIENNA

George Clare In February 1938 Georg Klaar, a young Jewish lad of seventeen, went to his first ball in Vienna, staying until the band's last waltz. A month later came the Anschluss. The ensuing years brought chaos and tragedy to his family; he himself became George Clare, serving in the British army. This is a marvellous memoir of his early life, and what happened next, in a handsome clothbound edition from Slightly Foxed. £18.50

THE MAKING OF OLIVER CROMWELL

Ronald Hutton The first of 2 vols, this takes the obscure, devout, devious provincial to the brink of immense power. £25.00

WHY MARIANNE FAITHFULL MATTERS

Tanya Pearson A provocative account of her well-lived life that exposes the profound misogyny of the music industry. £9.99

THE MASTER: THE BRILLIANT CAREER OF ROGER FEDERER

Christopher Clarey A biography of the Swiss tennis divinity, champion of sweetie-coloured blazers, master of self-possession, likened by fellow tennis players to Michelangelo for his skill. £20.00

GUARDED BY DRAGONS: ENCOUNTERS WITH RARE BOOKS AND RARE PEOPLE

Rick Gekoski A sequence of lively anecdotes from a mercurial mind: Gekoski has led several careers, as a publisher and more recently as a fine novelist. He is also the doyen of dealers in rare modern first editions. Golding, Greene, Rushdie, Plath's copy of 'The Great

Gatsby' (reclaimed by Ted Hughes), vanishing copies of 'Ulysses'... A Rowling manuscript draws him out on the relationship between value and worth. Funny and shrewd. £18.99

ALL THE FREQUENT TROUBLES OF OUR DAYS

Rebecca Donner A biography of Mildred Harnack (by her great-great-niece), the American woman who worked with political activists in Berlin 1930s and then, when WW2 broke out, with the German resistance. She was captured and executed in 1943. An extraordinary and gripping tale that gives substance to the leafletting that Fallada wrote about in 'Alone in Berlin'. £16.99

DEVORGILLA DAYS: A MEMOIR OF HOPE AND HEALING

Kathleen Hart Hart began a new life in a white-washed cottage in Wigtown - her Innisfree - while recovering from cancer. There she finds that swimming in a cold sea, nattering with lobster pot men, beekeepers - and booksellers! - are very good for her. She has also become an Instagram sensation under her alias PoshPedlar. £16.99

THE HOUSE OF JAIPUR: THE INSIDE STORY OF INDIA'S MOST GLAMOROUS ROYAL FAMILY

John Zubrzycki The story of India's Golden Couple and how they struggled to find their place in the modern democratic state. £25.00

C.L.R. JAMES: A LIFE BEYOND THE BOUNDARIES

John L Williams A new biography of the polymath Trinidadian cricketer and historian, Marxist, Brixton elder statesman. £25.00

GEORGE JELLCOE: SAS AND SBS COMMANDER

Nicholas C Jellicoe A life of action and controversy - by his son. £25.00

RE-EDUCATED: HOW I CHANGED MY JOB, MY HOME, MY HUSBAND AND MY HAIR

Lucy Kellaway After twenty years as an FT columnist and surrounded with all the usual trappings of success, Kellaway found herself uneasy. She then set about undoing the framework of her life and has retrained as a teacher. £16.99

WINGED BULL: THE EXTRAORDINARY LIFE OF HENRY LAYARD, THE ADVENTURER WHO DISCOVERED THE LOST CITY OF NINEVEH

Jeff Pearce Just 28 when he found Nineveh, Layard later witnessed the Charge of the Light Brigade and reported on the Indian Mutiny: his life was action-packed. This new biog argues that he was deeply respectful of the lands and cultures he explored. £25.00

THE TURKISH EMBASSY LETTERS: 1716-1718

Mary Wortley Montagu New edition of these wonderful, open-eyed letters by the wife of the British ambassador to the Sublime Porte; fascinating glimpses of the world of Ottoman women, not least their practice of inoculation. pbk £12.99

POWER PLAY: ELON MUSK, TESLA, AND THE BET OF THE CENTURY

Tim Higgins The turbulent story of building the world's first commercial electric car. £20.00

OH, WHAT A LOVELY CENTURY: ONE MAN'S MARVELLOUS ADVENTURES IN LOVE, WAR AND HIGH SOCIETY

Roderic Fenwick Owen, edited by Emily Barrett A rollicking account of the pursuit of love among the Good, the Bad and the Beautiful; abridged from 3 large volumes of memoirs that he left on his death in 2011. £20.00

PESSOA: AN EXPERIMENTAL LIFE

Richard Zenith A vast biography of the Portuguese poet, author of 'The Book of Disquiet'. £40.00

THREE-MARTINI AFTERNOONS AT THE RITZ: THE REBELLION OF SYLVIA PLATH & ANNE SEXTON

Gail Cronther An exploration of the friendship and rivalry of these two poets, who met weekly at the Ritz (for a while) to discuss sex, suicide, mental health and other mutual preoccupations. £20.00

A BOOK FULL OF ROGERSONS

Barnaby Rogerson The magnificent Eland publisher considers his ilk through the stories and gossip of 15 generations of farmers, colonels, brewers, naval commanders and horse-lovers, as told to him by a great-aunt. pbk £20.00

WULFF: BRITTEN'S YOUNG APOLLO

Tony Scotland Raised in Nazi Germany, at 18, Wulff Scherchen was Britten's muse and lover. When the composer went to the USA during the war, Wulff was interned as an enemy alien and transported to Canada, whence he returned as a British soldier. This biography is published by the wonderful Shelf Lives, who brought us 'Bazouker', 'Joyride', Gimcrack's Progress' and others. £24.00

SPEAK, SILENCE: IN SEARCH OF W. G. SEBALD

Carole Angier Beautifully attuned to her subject, CA unravels Sebald's work from his life with subtlety and sympathy. She has previously written a marvellous biography of Primo Levi. £30.00

HOME IN THE WORLD: A MEMOIR

Amartya Sen A memoir from the great Indian philosopher, from childhood in Dhaka to Master of Trinity. £25.00

BUNNYMAN: A MEMOIR

Will Sergeant By one of the founders of Echo & the Bunnymen. £20.00

JOHN STONEHOUSE, MY FATHER

Julia Stonehouse The MP's faked drowning in 1974, the ensuing scandal, trial, bankruptcy & jail. By his daughter. £16.99

THE RADICAL POTTER: JOSIAH WEDGWOOD AND THE TRANSFORMATION OF BRITAIN

Tristram Hunt The Director of the V & A looks at how the great, radical ceramicist and Lunar man transformed society by creating an early form of international mass market, and through his ideals - the abolition of slavery, religious toleration, the improvement of living conditions, etc. £30.00

INSIDE THATCHER'S LAST ELECTION: DIARIES OF THE CAMPAIGN THAT SAVED ENTERPRISE

David Young A vivid record of the 1987 election campaign, which he ran. £20.00

HISTORY

THE LAST MUSLIM CONQUEST: THE OTTOMAN EMPIRE AND ITS WARS IN EUROPE

Gabor Agoston A grand panorama from the C14th to the Siege of Vienna in 1683. £35.00

THE LAST EMBASSY: THE DUTCH MISSION OF 1795 AND THE FORGOTTEN HISTORY OF WESTERN ENCOUNTERS WITH CHINA

Tonio Andrade Macartney's 1793 mission was a failure, but the Dutch were better informed. This new study argues that the Qing court was not arrogant and narrow-minded, as the English concluded, but was in fact open, flexible, curious, and cosmopolitan. £30.00

PRISONERS OF TIME: PRUSSAINS, GERMANS AND OTHER HUMANS

Christopher Clark Essays - from the author of 'The Sleepwalkers'. £25.00

MY FATHER'S LETTERS: CORRESPONDENCE FROM THE SOVIET GULAG

Memorial Human Rights Centre This remarkable volume was published by the Memorial Human Rights Centre, a Russian civil rights group. It tells the stories of 16 men - mostly members of the intelligentsia, and loyal Soviet subjects - who were imprisoned in the Gulag camps, through the letters they sent back to their wives and children. £30.00

EMPIRE AND JIHAD: THE ANGLO-ARAB WARS OF 1870-1920

Neil Faulkner Panoramic account of the conflicts that arose from British attempts to control North Africa and the Middle East. £25.00

THE FALL OF ROBESPIERRE: 24 HOURS IN REVOLUTIONARY PARIS

Colin Jones A meticulous record of Robespierre's last day, his swift and sudden fall on the 27th July 1794 – which, in retrospect, becomes a pivotal point in the French Revolution. This is a strikingly original book that avoids great sweeps of history to focus on telling details and pin-point accuracy: according to the author, there is no other day in the whole of the C18th that is so well documented – extraordinary as this sounds. Almost two hundred accounts of it have survived. The drama of that day even adheres to the three classical unities of time, place and action so prized in French theatre. The close-up effect allows us to 'see' Robespierre more clearly and lends pathos to that dreaded architect of the Terror. £25.00

HIDDEN HERITAGE: REDISCOVERING BRITAIN'S LOST LOVE OF THE ORIENT

Fatima Manji A fascinating and valuable tour of objects and buildings in the UK that recall Britain's engagements with the East over hundreds of years. £20.00

THE UTOPIANS: SIX ATTEMPTS TO BUILD THE PERFECT SOCIETY

Anna Neima C20th experimental and idealistic collectives, including Santiniketan in Delhi, England's Dartington, Germany's Bruderhof. Their leaders were charismatics too - Tagore, Gurdjieff, et al - eccentric and factious too. £25.00

GOING TO CHURCH IN MEDIEVAL ENGLAND

Nicholas Orme The buildings that are falling into disuse and ruin all around the UK were once essential in their communities. This study - from the Anglo-Saxons to the mid-C16th shows how they worked. £20.00

BLOOD AND RUINS: THE GREAT IMPERIAL WAR, 1931-1945

Richard Overy Argues that WW2 was the climax of a century's rivalry for global territory and power. 1000 pages. £40.00

SCENES FROM PREHISTORIC LIFE: FROM THE ICE AGE TO THE COMING OF THE ROMANS

Francis Pryor The distinguished archaeologist looks at 15 'scenes' in Britain over the last million years, to understand the changing daily routines of people and their impact on the landscape. £25.00

ANTWERP: THE GLORY YEARS

Michael Pye From the author of the excellent 'The Edge of the World: How the North Sea Made Us Who We Are', an account of the dazzling city that was the hub of the known world in the C16th. £25.00

PALACES OF REVOLUTION: LIFE, DEATH AND ART AT THE STUART COURT

Simon Thurley Thurley is an architectural historian: his account of the dynasty is presented chronologically, through the buildings in which they lived. £25.00

FALLEN IDOLS: TWELVE STATUES THAT MADE HISTORY

Alex Von Tunzelmann An instructive look at 12 statues: why they were put up, the stories they were supposed to tell, why those stories were challenged; and why the statues were pulled down. £20.00

THE PIANO: A HISTORY IN 100 PIECES

Susan Tomes From the late C18th to the present, by a concert pianist of renown. Lucid and fascinating. From Yale. £16.99

CURRENT AFFAIRS

BEIRUT 2020: THE COLLAPSE OF A CIVILIZATION, A JOURNAL

Charif Majdalani A short account of what has happened in Beirut, and how people found strength to survive and unite. £14.99

HOW TO STOP FASCISM: HISTORY, IDEOLOGY, RESISTANCE

Paul Mason Eloquenty argues that the new far right needs to be resisted, and shows us how to do so. £20.00

THIS LAND IS OUR LAND: AN IMMIGRANT'S MANIFESTO

Sukeetu Mehta Draws on his own family's experience of emigrating from India to Britain and America to show how the West is being destroyed not by immigrants but by its fear of immigrants. pbk £9.99

THE AUTHORITY GAP: WHY WOMEN ARE STILL TAKEN LESS SERIOUSLY THAN MEN, AND WHAT WE CAN DO ABOUT IT

Mary Ann Sieghart Interviewees on unconscious and persistent bias include Mary Beard, Lady Hale, Julia Gillard, Bernadine Evaristo, Dolly Alderton. £16.99

TOGETHER: TEN CHOICES FOR A BETTER NOW

Ece Temelkuran The Turkish writer and political commentator, author of 'How to Lose a Country', on how to live now - civic engagement, an acknowledgement of reality, determination and a rejection of complacency in the face of climate change, democratic upheaval and wavering economies. £12.99

12 BYTES: HOW WE GOT HERE. WHERE WE MIGHT GO NEXT.

Jeanette Winterson Essays on the implications of artificial intelligence on the ways in which we love and live. £16.99

THE PLAGUE YEAR: AMERICA IN THE TIME OF COVID

Lawrence Wright LW is his first class on catastrophic events - his book on 9/11 won a Pulitzer. Now he shows how political incompetence and cynicism caused mortality ten times greater than US combat deaths in Vietnam. Meticulously researched, we are in reliable hands here. £20.00

FICTION

A PASSAGE NORTH

Anuk Arudpragasam A novel set in war-torn Sri Lanka. £14.99

A SUNDAY IN VILLE-D'AVRAY

Dominique Barberis, translated by John Cullen A beguiling, short novel in which two sisters half-share truths and desires, in a secluded Parisian suburb. pbk £9.99

THE WOMEN OF TROY

Pat Barker Follows her superb 'The Silence of the Girls' beyond Troy's fall: Briseis has to navigate the squabbling victors as they wait for a fair wind. £18.99

THE ART OF LIVING

Stephen Bayley We look forward to discovering whether a neat, prolific design guru features in this satire of the late C20th art world. £16.99

THE LAST AND THE FIRST

Nina Berberova, translated by Marian Schwartz NB was one of the great Russian emigre writers, best known for her short stories and memoir. This novel - about the experiences of a group of emigres, is its first translation into English - thanks, again, to the Pushkin Press. pbk £12.00

THE ECHO CHAMBER

John Boyne The Cleverley family seems graced by fame and fortune, but disaster in their media world is just round the corner (a tweet away)... £16.99

CEREMONY OF INNOCENCE

Madeleine Bunting A wonderful novel moving between the Shah's Iran, Bahrain and England, in which the murky origins of an English family's wealth emerge following the disappearance of a Cambridge student in Egypt. £14.99

THE PAINTER'S FRIEND

Howard Cunnell An artist joins an island community of impoverished like-minded souls. When the island's owner pushes up the rent, a conflict ensues in which the dispossessed protest against gentrification. £16.99

YESTERDAY

Juan Emar, translated by Megan McDowell This surreal novel from the 1930s is the first publication in English of this influential Chilean surrealist. pbk £12.00

DINNER PARTY: A TRAGEDY

Sarah Gilmartin Structured around a family dinner party in which old secrets unravel; set in Ireland £16.99

THE OPHELIA GIRLS

Jane Healey A powerful exploration of illicit desire, in which a 17-year-old girl has a crush on a friend of her parents that turns on some dark events of 24 years previously. £16.99

HOSTAGE

Clare Mackintosh The non-stop flight from London to Sydney is a nail-biter... £14.99

BLANK PAGES AND OTHER STORIES

Bernard MacLaverty Twelve new stories from the Irish master. Violence, persecution, ageing... Schiele dying of the Spanish flu. £14.99

THE BLACK DRESS

Deborah Moggach Soon after her husband leaves her, Pru goes to a friend's funeral - but she's got the wrong day. She has such fun at the stranger's funeral that she buys a black dress and starts attending others... (cf Donleavy's delicious 'The Woman Who Liked Clean Restrooms?') £16.99 £16.99

DID YOU MISS ME?

Sophia Money-Coutts Another jaunty rom-com in which our heroine unexpectedly bumps into her first love... £14.99

DAUGHTERS OF THE LABYRINTH

Ruth Padel A London-based artist returns to Crete, where she was born, and discovers family secrets from the German Occupation. £18.99

BEAUTIFUL WORLD, WHERE ARE YOU

Sally Rooney Four young people worry about their lives while trying to live them. They also worry about sex, before it, during and after. Iris Murdoch comes to mind, but perhaps there's (even) more sex. Rooney is a phenomenon and very clever about C21st 'romangste'. £16.99

MEN IN MY SITUATION

Per Petterson, translated by Ingvild Burkey Petterson has not been kind to his protagonist, removing from him by traumatic means his wife, three daughters, parents and brothers. It is no surprise that he is pole-axed by grief; will Petterson allow this unhappy man any kind of redemption? 'Out Stealing Horses' was global best-seller. £16.99

THE EARTHSPINNER

Anuradha Roy A finely-spun novel about a potter, of living, loving, fanaticism and creativity, allegory and myth. From a highly regarded and intelligent writer. £16.99

THE ISLAND OF MISSING TREES

Elif Shafak Compassionate novel set in Cyprus and its civil war, before moving to contemporary London where a young woman tries to unearth her family's past and finds love, loss, displacement and hope. £14.99

THE COUNTRY OF OTHERS

Leila Slimani, translated by Sam Taylor A young French woman leaves Paris after the liberation in 1944 and joins her husband on a farm in Morocco, where she finds herself lonely, alienated, mistrusted and increasingly restless. The growing complexity of her situation is mirrored by Morocco's struggle for independence. This first volume of a projected trilogy is loosely based on the life of Slimani's grandmother. £14.99

A MIRROR FOR MONKEYS

John Spurling A witty historical novel that conjures Dryden, Swift, Pope, Lady Mary Wortley Montagu and their ilk, by the cunning means of an imagined memoir, written by William Congreve's servant and companion. £16.99

PEREIRA MAINTAINS: A TESTIMONY

Antonio Tabucchi, translated by Patrick Creagh A new edition of this magnificent, subtle novel of unlikely courage, frailty, love and betrayal in Lisbon, under Salazar's dictatorship. As

Diana Athill wrote, reading it is an experience by which we are likely to be forever changed. pbk £9.99

REQUIEM: A HALLUCINATION

Antonio Tabucchi, translated by Margaret Jull Costa Tabucchi's paean to old Lisbon and to Fernando Pessoa is comic, elegiac, very clever, slightly surreal and hugely enjoyable. One of three new editions of his work. pbk £9.99

LITTLE MISUNDERSTANDINGS OF NO IMPORTANCE: AND OTHER STORIES

Antonio Tabucchi, translated by Frances Frenaye Short stories by this wonderful writer - one of three new editions of his work. pbk £9.99

FILTHY ANIMALS

Brandon Taylor Short stories from the author of 'Real Life', short listed for the Booker Prize in 2020. pbk £9.99

OTHER WORLDS: PEASANTS, PILGRIMS, SPIRITS, SAINTS

Teffi, translated by Robert Chandler Off-kilter, strange and funny short stories by the wonderful Russian writer and playwright. Her other works published in English have been one joyous discovery after another. pbk £10.99

THRILLERS

WHILE JUSTICE SLEEPS

Stacey Abrams A powerful legal thriller set in Washington, by a well known, busy Democrat. £14.99

THE OTHER MOTHER

Michel Bussi A tense thriller in which a four-year-old claims that his mother isn't his real mum...Bussi is France's bestselling thriller writer. £14.99

WIDESPREAD PANIC: FREDDY OTASH CONFESSES

James Ellroy An ex-LA cop on the skids amidst paranoid communist conspiracies in 1950s Hollywood... £20.00

THE THERAPIST

Helene Flood, translated by Alison McCullough A woman's husband disappears, after leaving her message that he has arrived at their cabin, but a friend tells her he never did. A twisting plot, a compelling tension and an unexpected ending: first-class Norwegian noir. £14.99

A SLOW FIRE BURNING

Paula Hawkins From the author of 'The Girl on the Train', a tense new thriller involving three troubled women, set in London. £20.00

A LINE TO KILL

Anthony Horowitz A murder mystery set on the island of Alderney. £20.00

RED TRAITOR

Owen Matthews A new Cold War thriller from the author of 'Black Sun'. This too is based on real events, and is set on a submarine in the Caribbean. £16.99

THE DOLL

Yrsa Sigurdardottir Satisfyingly creepy crime novel from the acclaimed Icelandic author: a doll caught in a fishing net, dead bodies, cold cases... an atmospheric and well-plotted chiller to read in sunlight! £16.99

OUR FRIENDS IN BEIJING

John Simpson Friends are hard to find for Jon Swift, an aging journalist whose career is on the ropes. A chance encounter with an old friend from Tiananmen Square days leads to power games in China, with proliferating and perilous players. £18.99

THE WRONG GOODBYE

Toshihiko Yabagi, translated by Alfred Birnbaum Set in post-war Japan, this is a Chanderlesque tale of murder, political corruption and black marketeering, with a heavy-drinking investigator out on a limb. Familiar tropes perhaps, but intriguingly reworked by the master of Japanese noir. £18.99

POETRY, ESSAYS, CULTURE

THE WILD FOX OF YEMEN

Threa Almontaser This finely crafted debut by a young Yemeni-American woman won the Walt Whitman Award. pbk £10.99

POEMS: 1962-2020

Louise Gluck An anthology of the twelve collections she has published to date. £30.00

LEARNING TO SLEEP

John Burnside A new collection, with the god Hypnos lurking in the background. pbk £10.00

FAR DISTRICT

Ishion Hutchinson IH has won a Windham-Campbell Award, the Joseph Brodsky Rome Prize and the National Book Critics Circle Award for his autobiographical poems. pbk £10.99

THE FALL AT HOME: NEW AND COLLECTED APHORISMS

Don Paterson DP's wit is dry as an autumn leaf but is he using 'fall' in a seasonal sense or in more of a Morticia Addams one? pbk £10.99

NOTES ON GRIEF

Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie Adichie, a notoriously private writer, is eloquent - but careful with her ink - after the unexpected death of her father. £10.00

THINGS ARE AGAINST US

Lucy Ellmann Funny and provocative essays from the author of 'Ducks, Newburyport', short-listed for the Booker and loved by many. pbk £9.99

SOME ANSWERS WITHOUT QUESTIONS

Lavinia Greenlaw A work of self-investigation by a remarkable and versatile writer, which explores why an artist would respond to the world without being invited to do so. Essays about voice, finding it and using it, by a great writer and poet. £12.99

ART

IMAGINING LANDSCAPES: PAINTINGS BY HELEN FRANKENTHALER, 1952-1976

Robert Slifkin Explores the references to landscape during this period of the American abstract painter. £60.00

BARBARA HEPWORTH: A LIFE

Eleanor Clayton, introduction by Ali Smith An important new monograph from long-time Hepworth specialist and curator of Hepworth Wakefield. £25.00

HOGARTH

Jacqueline Riding An illustrated biography of an artist and innovator who, from humble beginnings, achieved far more than the scenes of roistering for which he is mostly associated. £30.00

BEN NICHOLSON: FROM THE STUDIO

Lee Beard From the Pallant House Gallery in Chichester, a book that sets objects from his studio (glass, ceramics etc) alongside his pictures. £24.95

RAPHAEL: THE POWER OF RENAISSANCE IMAGES: THE DRESDEN TAPESTRIES AND THEIR IMPACT

Stephan Kojan The cartoons for these fabulous tapestries are in the V & A. This is the catalogue to an exhibition of the tapestries made for Augustus the Strong, held at the Gemäldegalerie Alte Meister in Dresden. £48.00

PAULA REGO

Elena Crippa A finely illustrated monograph on her life and work, from the Tate. £40.00

PAULA REGO

Edited by Elena Crippa A finely illustrated monograph on her life and work, from the Tate. pbk £25.00

CONCHOPHILIA: SHELLS, ART, AND CURIOSITY IN EARLY MODERN EUROPE

Marisa Anne Bass A gorgeous illustrated study of the ways in which shells were circulated, depicted, collected, and valued during a time of remarkable global change. £42.00

THIS DARK COUNTRY: WOMEN ARTISTS, STILL LIFE AND INTIMACY IN THE EARLY TWENTIETH CENTURY

Rebecca Birrell A rich and original account of how the known (Vanessa Bell, Gwen John) and many lesser known artists expressed themselves through their gorgeous vases of flowers, bowls of fruit etc. £25.00

THE SEAS AND THE MOBILITY OF ISLAMIC ART

Edited by Radha Dalal, Sean Roberts & Jochen Sokoly Numerous contributors discuss different aspects of seafaring in the spread of Islamic culture, from its origins to the present. Well illustrated and fascinating. £50.00

THE WORLD ACCORDING TO COLOUR: A CULTURAL HISTORY

James Fox The meanings, uses and associations of colours across the world and through the millennia, by a young Cambridge don. £25.00

ARTISTS MAKING LANDSCAPES IN POST-WAR BRITAIN

Margaret Garlake Includes both rural and urban subjects as artists responded to altered landscapes. From an excellent, specialist press. £45.00

DANISH GOLDEN AGE PAINTING

David Jackson A serious study of these beguiling artists that places them in a European context and shows how they were also distinctive. £40.00

ARCHITECTURE & INTERIORS

THE OTHER MODERN MOVEMENT: ARCHITECTURE, 1920-1970

Kenneth Frampton Profiles nineteen architects less commonly associated with the movement to reveal the breadth and complexity of architectural modernism. £35.00

THE Umayyad Mosque of Damascus: Art, Faith and Empire in Early Islam

Alain George The earliest mosque still standing in something close to its original state. An excellently researched book, as you would expect from this publisher. Illustrated. £60.00

ARCHITECTURAL DRAWINGS: HIDDEN MASTERPIECES FROM SIR JOHN SOANE'S MUSEUM

Frances Sands A selection from what was probably the first comprehensive collection of architectural drawings in the world. £35.00

RAISED FROM THE RUINS: MONASTIC HOUSES AFTER THE DISSOLUTION

Jane Whitaker Looks at houses built among the destruction during a five-year period, both survivors and others that have since disappeared. £35.00

DESIGN SECRETS: ADDING CHARACTER AND STYLE TO AN INTERIOR TO MAKE IT YOUR OWN

Kit Kemp Useful DIY tips from the popular interior designer. £25.00

CHATEAU D'HAROUÉ: THE HOME OF THE PRINCES DE BEAUVAU-CRAON

Victoria Botana Beauvais, photographs by Miguel Flores Vianna The French C18th chateau has 82 rooms with superb pictures, furniture etc, brilliantly photographed. £45.00

A ROOM OF HER OWN: INSIDE THE HOMES AND LIVES OF CREATIVE WOMEN

Robyn Lea A mix of biographical sketches of twenty successful women artists, writers, designers, curators, chefs, jewelers and entrepreneurs, and gorgeous photography of their homes and work places. Amber Guinness in Tuscany, Marta Ferri the Milanese fashion designer, Alice Stori Liechtenstein's Austrian schloss, Fiona Corsini in Chianti, Sue Townsend who founded Ortigia... £35.00

ROSE UNIACKE AT HOME

Rose Uniacke & Alice Rawsthorn, photographs by Francois Halard A gorgeous book, the first on this celebrated designer. £150.00

ROOMS: STEVEN VOLPE

Steven Volpe & Mayer Rus Understated interiors by the Californian designer, looking at ten recent projects including a London townhouse. £45.00

THOMAS JEFFERSON AT MONTICELLO

Leslie Greene Bowman & Charlotte Moss, photographs by Miguel Flores Vianna Architecture, landscape, collections, books, food and wine - with contributions by Jon Meacham, Alice Waters, Jay McInerney, Annette Gordon-Reed, Xavier Salomon and others. £32.50

TRAVEL

WINDSWEPT: WALKING IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF REMARKABLE WOMEN

Annabel Abbs Georgia O'Keefe, Gwen John, Daphne du Maurier, Nan Shepherd and Simone de Beauvoir are Abbs's companions. £16.99

BORGES AND ME: AN ENCOUNTER

Jay Parini Parini really did travel around Scotland with Borges in an old Morris Minor, his ears flapping, heart opening and mind sharpening all the way. The result is a wonderful work of autofiction - not a novel about a car but something so elusive we're not quite sure what it is... but read this, for pure joy's sake. £14.99

THE GOLD MACHINE: IN THE TRACKS OF THE MULE DANCERS

Iain Sinclair In this new book Sinclair has abandoned London for Peru, in an attempt to understand his great-grandfather's colonial career. The narrative Sinclair grew up with ends up as self-serving flotsam, washed up on waves of exploitation, greed, institutional collusion and brutality. Sinclair's approach is brilliantly his own, his language ditto £20.00

THE GLASS WALL: LIVES ON THE BALTIC FRONTIER

Max Egremont The ghosts of history are as present in this remarkable new book as they were in Egremont's 'Hidden Voices', his outstanding book on East Prussia. £25.00

CITY OF ILLUSIONS: A HISTORY OF GRANADA

Helen Rodgers & Stephen Cavendish From the glory of its Arab heyday to Bourbon decadence, the Spanish Civil War and its modern revival. £18.99

LOST PARADISE: THE STORY OF GRANADA

Elizabeth Drayson By the author of 'The Moor's Last Stand', a biography of Boabdil, whose sigh, looking back at the beautiful Granada he had fled, still resonates. Illustrated. £35.00

A TIME OF GIFTS: ON FOOT TO CONSTANTINOPLE

Patrick Leigh Fermor A new hardback edition. Vol 1 of this much-loved trilogy. £16.99

BETWEEN THE WOODS AND THE WATER: ON FOOT TO CONSTANTINOPLE FROM THE HOOK OF HOLLAND

Patrick Leigh Fermor A new hardback edition. Vol 2 of this much-loved trilogy. £16.99

THE BROKEN ROAD: FROM THE IRON GATES TO MOUNT ATHOS

Patrick Leigh Fermor A new hardback edition. Vol 3 of this much-loved trilogy. £16.99

SPEAK THE WIND

Michael Taussig, photographs by Afshar Hoda A book of photographs by an Iranian-Australian photographer documenting the islands in the Strait of Hormuz in southern Iran, their eerie, wind-carved landscapes and their wind-haunted inhabitants whose culture is deeply influenced by the omni-present gusts. AH's aim was to make "a visible record of the invisible through the eye of the imagination"; the result is unearthly, beautiful, sometimes surreal. £35.00

NATURE

SILENT EARTH: AVERTING THE INSECT APOCALYPSE

Dave Goulson The bee-drunk naturalist gives us a sobering account of prospective extinction if we don't begin taking radical care of insect habitats. £20.00

WOODSTON: THE BIOGRAPHY OF AN ENGLISH FARM

John Lewis-Stempel "We think about history coming down to us; but creation, generally, builds upwards, layer on layer..." JLS is a farmer as well as one of our foremost writers of nature, and here he takes his family farm back to the year dot. £20.00

NATURE CURE

Richard Mabey A handsome reissue of this celebrated memoir to honour the author's 80th birthday, from one of our favourite small publishers. £18.00

THE SEA IS NOT MADE OF WATER: LIFE BETWEEN THE TIDES

Adam Nicolson An exploration of our shores, the land between the tides, the littoral realm of the shrimp and the anemone... Nicolson is observant, patient, inquisitive, immune to soaking, buoyed by poetry and science. Tremendous stuff. £20.00

THIS IS YOUR MIND ON PLANTS: OPIUM-CAFFEINE-MESCALINE

Michael Pollan Clever study of three very different psychoactive, natural drugs. Give up coffee - are you out of your mind? £20.00

THE LIGHTNING THREAD

David Profumo Witty and wandering memoir about the pursuit of happiness - indeed paradise - through all things "fishological", which include travelling about and stillness, people and solitude, childhood and a long look back through adulthood. (Presumably Pope Gregory I meant 'anglers' all along.) £25.00

FOX AND I: AN UNCOMMON FRIENDSHIP

Catherine Raven Raven is an American biologist whose cherished solitude in a remote part of Montana is interrupted by a fox, who begins visiting her daily. As an academic, any sense of a meaningful relationship with a wild animal is impossible; yet she finds herself reading aloud to the fox each day (from 'The Little Prince'), then they being hiking together. Terse, odd, lyrical and unexpected by turns. £16.99

THE HEARTBEAT OF TREES: EMBRACING OUR ANCIENT BOND WITH FORESTS AND NATURE

Peter Wohlleben Essays from the great German woodsman. Happily for us all he was an ent in a previous life. £18.99

SMALL BODIES OF WATER

Nina Mingya Powles Tender and haunting book about swimming, migration, separation, connection from a wonderful new voice. Roams from Borneo to New Zealand and London. £14.99

GARDENS

WILDFLOWERS FOR THE QUEEN

Hugo Rittson Thomas, introduction by HRH the Prince of Wales Fabulous photographs of the wildflower meadows created up and down the country for the 60th anniversary of ER's coronation. In tandem with various NGOs and charities, this initiative has an important nature conservancy role. £50.00

MAWSON: THE ART AND CRAFT OF GARDEN MAKING

Thomas H Mawson First published in 1901, Mawson's book was hugely influential for decades, both for garden designers and landscape gardeners. Large format, handsomely produced in dark green cloth, many illustrations. £70.00

PURE STYLE IN THE GARDEN: CREATING AN OUTDOOR HAVEN

Jane Cumberbatch Gardens as extensions of the home, by the well known designer. Sheds out, summerhouses in. More room to get sloshed on redcurrant vodka. £20.00

LOST SKILLS AND CRAFTS HANDBOOK

Alan Titchmarsh How to keep chickens, make soap, create a kitchen garden, dip candles, tie knots, and a lot more. This might well take the place of the old 'Weekend Books' in an era of lockdowns. £18.99

FOOD

AN A-Z OF PASTA: STORIES, SHAPES, SAUCES, RECIPES

Rachel Roddy Glorious and ruinously tempting. As are all Roddy's earlier books... Recalls PLF's thoughts on the intimate relationship between pasta -and the rise of the Italian Baroque (in his essay 'On Gluttony'). £25.00

LA VITA E DOLCE: ITALIAN-INSPIRED DESSERTS

Letitia Clark A second book by the author of 'Bitter Honey', her excellent book on the food of Sardinia. £26.00

A CURIOUS ABSENCE OF CHICKENS: A JOURNAL OF LIFE, FOOD AND RECIPES FROM PUGLIA

Sophie Grigson Her first book in a decade sees the wonderful SG moving to southern Italy, using food as a route to understanding the culture, history and geography of the region. £20.00

TWO HUNDRED YEARS OF CHARLESTON COOKING

Blanche S Rhett First published in 1930, this is a compendium of old recipes from the American South, rather than Bloomsbury. Fascinating even if some of the ingredients will be hard to come by, at least in SW3. Hominy? Turtle soup? Grub for Tom Sawyer and Huck Finn. £19.95

FLAVOURS OF GREECE

Rosemary Barron A new edition of this classic work on Greek food - many of the recipes are Cretan. pbk £18.99

MACEDONIA - THE COOKBOOK: RECIPES FROM THE BALKAN PENINSULA

Katarina Nitsou Especially from the mountainous region of Northern Macedonia. Nitsou is Macedonian-Canadian, and grew up cooking with three generations of her family before Cordon Bleu training etc. £20.00

MEDITERRANEAN COOKBOOK

Arabella Boxer A new edition of this splendid book. £14.99

OMELETTE: FOOD, LOVE, CHAOS AND OTHER CONVERSATIONS

Jessie Ware Slim memoir from the well-known singer. Eggs get broken. £12.99

THE COMPLETE VEGETABLE COOKBOOK

James Strawbridge After the success of 'The Artisan Kitchen', JS sets about belabouring beets, beans, broccoli, bok choy with his trusty rolling pin. £25.00

THE SWEET ROASTING TIN: ONE TIN CAKES, COOKIES & BAKES

Rukmini Iyer Iyer does it again - this time keeping it sweet. The last in her five-volume series dedicated to delicious, fresh food made with minimum effort. £18.99

FOR CHILDREN

BY ASH, OAK AND THORN

Melissa Harrison Three tiny, ancient beings - Moss, Burnet and Cumulus - set out to find more of their kind when their ash tree home is destroyed. Harrison's fine debut for children recalls BB's 'Little Grey Men' and 'Down the Bright Stream' in its rich evocation of nature and t mysterious beings at its heart. Ages 6-8. pbk £7.99

NEVER, NOT EVER!

Beatrice Alemagna Pascaline goes batty at the prospect of going to school. (Actually she is a bat.) Alemagna is marvelous illustrator and storyteller: her previous books - such as 'A Lion in Paris' exude charm and humour. Ages 3-5. £12.99

THE BOOK CAT

Polly Faber, illustrated by Clara Vulliamy A wartime tale of a cat that moved into the London offices of the publishing house Faber. Funny and gladdening. Ages 6-8. £12.99

WILD CHILD: A JOURNEY THROUGH NATURE

Dara McAnulty, illustrated by Barry Falls DA's 'Diary of a Young Naturalist' won last year's Wainright Prize; he is extraordinarily young too - now just 17. Here he invites young readers on a practical exploration of the world around them - riverbank, forest floor, heathland, even looking out of the window - with energy, insight, ease and enthusiasm. Ages 7+.. £14.99

AMAZON RIVER

Sangma Francis, illustrated by Romolo d'Hipolito From its source to the sea: its wildlife, geography, natural history, people and history. Good non-fiction, imaginatively illustrated and conceived, for ages 7-10. £14.99

EINSTEIN: THE FANTASTIC JOURNEY OF A MOUSE THROUGH TIME AND SPACE

Torben Kublmann Another lovely mouse-meets-science book, following on from Lindbergh, Eddison and Armstrong. This time a mouse misses the world's biggest cheese festival and turns back time - but by eighty years too many. He needs the help of a certain employee of the Swiss Patent Office to put things right. Ages 6-8. £14.99

SLEEPY STORIES

Mario Levrero, illustrated by Diego Bianchi, translated by Alicia Lopez A wonderful and unusual book by a Uruguayan author, splendidly illustrated by an Argentinian. Dreamy tales of sleepy people - a man who curls up to nap inside an umbrella, another with a body so long and elastic he can stretch across town to reach his bed. The narrator too is sleepy, his son Nicholas demanding another - and another. Mysterious, funny, delightful book for reading aloud for 5+, and for readers 7+. £14.99

THE EDELWEISS PIRATES

Dirk Reinhardt, introduction by Michael Rosen, translated by Rachel Ward A novel about the loosely-organised, anti-Nazi youth movement in Germany that emerged in the 1930s in defiance of the Hitlerjugend. 16-year-old Daniel comes to discover their history through the diary of a haunted old man, only to find that his relationship with them is very personal. Ages 11-15. pbk £7.99

THE SECRET LIVES OF DRAGONS

Professor Zoya Agnis, illustrated by Alexander Utkin Dragons from around the world, for not-too-serious dragonologists aged 6-9. Illustrated guide to everything - wingbeats, scales, hoards, habitat... £14.99

THE WEEK AT WORLD'S END

Emma Carroll It's 1962, the Cuban missile crisis is in full swing but nothing, of course, is happening in World's End Close. Until a runaway girl is found in the coalshed... Exciting historical thriller for ages 9-12. £12.99

SAVING MR HOOT

Helen Stephens A little boy and an owl hoot to each other every evening, but then Mr Hoot's oak tree is threatened with felling. Sweet picture book for ages 3-6. £12.99

WEATHER: POP-UP BOOK

Maike Biederstaedt Storm clouds, a rainbow, a tornado, snowflakes and more... from a gifted illustrator. Ages 6-10. £19.99

SOME OF OUR RECENT FAVOURITES

MONKEY KING: JOURNEY TO THE WEST

Wu Ch'eng-en, translated by Julia Lovell A new translation of this fabulous C16th Chinese work - a wild epic, an outrageous satire, and surely one of the most exuberant works of literature the world has ever known. Overlays the travels of a C7th Buddhist monk's travels to India in search of texts with colourful folk tales. Its protagonist is a monkey, voracious for life, disruptive, immoral and - having devoured the celestial Jade Empress's peaches - immortal, and in big trouble. His redemption can only be obtained by travelling to the west as the monk's protector. £22.00

LIBRARY OF ICE: READINGS FROM A COLD CLIMATE

Nancy Campbell A cultural history of ice and icy places, written between Northern Greenland and the Bodleian Library, in the Alps and at the Kinross Curling Club. NC, a poet, deftly blends memoir, literary criticism and travel writing into a gleaming archive of cold climates on a warming planet. Transporting, delicious., in two formats. hbk £14.99 / pbk £9.99

LIBRARY OF ICE: READINGS FROM A COLD CLIMATE

Nancy Campbell A cultural history of ice and icy places, written between Northern Greenland and the Bodleian Library, in the Alps and at the Kinross Curling Club. NC, a poet, deftly blends memoir, literary criticism and travel writing into a gleaming archive of cold climates on a warming planet. Transporting, delicious., in two formats. hbk £14.99 / pbk £9.99

IN THE GARDEN: ESSAYS ON NATURE AND GROWING

Various Another themed anthology from Daunt Newest in the Daunt Books series (At the Pond, In the Kitchen), this brings together essays from various Sandoe's luminaries (Penelope Lively, Francesca Wade, Nigel Slater, Jamaica Kincaid, et al.) about their lives in the garden. pbk £9.99

A SHOCK

Keith Ridgway A dizzying and quietly surreal novel of South London life narrated through an interlinked series of episodic character studies. Ridgway's neo-Beckettian prose is never less than needle sharp as he shows us the comic mysteries and small epiphanies which can be found amid the sprawl and anonymity of urban existence. £16.99

SAY NOTHING: A TRUE STORY OF MURDER AND MEMORY IN NORTHERN IRELAND

Patrick Radden Keefe A history of the Troubles, propelled by a gripping narrative that centres on the abduction of Jean McConville in 1972. The events that Radden Keefe writes about here are both tragic and haunting: they cast a long shadow still. This is an outstanding and important piece of reportage. pbk £9.99

AT NIGHT ALL BLOOD IS BLACK

David Diop This year's slim winner of the International Booker Prize is stunning. Set during the Great War and narrated by a Senegalese soldier fighting for France on the Western Front, it deals with the horror and madness of war. A harrowing and unsparing tale, it is redeemed by the beauty of the language and the truth of its insights. pbk £9.99

THE ITALIAN RENAISSANCE ALTARPIECE: BETWEEN ICON AND NARRATIVE

David Ekserdjian A learned study of the history of the altarpiece in Renaissance Italy from the C13th to C17th. Accompanied with beautiful images of the most heavenly of mediums during this period. £60.00

THE VOLCANO LOVER: A ROMANCE

Susan Sontag A sublime historical novel whose subtitle 'A Romance' is deliciously deceptive. Sir William Hamilton's exploits around the bay of Naples in the late C18th are driven not by an obsession for his wife but for the treasures to be found in the foothills of Vesuvius. The book is a wonderfully imaginative approach to Britain's pursuit of empire and cultural capital. pbk £12.00

THE OTHER JACK

Charles Boyle A delightful extended riff on books and reading from a man with various pseudonyms (Jennie Walker, Jack Robinson...). Its subtitle is 'A book about books, mostly. And bonfires, cliches, dystopias, failure, happiness, jokes, justice, privilege, publishing, rejection, self-loathing, shoplifting and umbrellas'. This picks up the range but not the depth. It's like being in the company of a beloved friend who's had a bit too much to drink (maybe) and wants to share a lot of nonsense which, perhaps, is not so nonsensical as it seems... This is a gem. pbk £8.99

