SPRING BOOKS 2022

Price and availability may be subject to occasional revision

BIOGRAPHICAL

HOUSE ARREST: PANDEMIC DIARIES Alan Bennett

Brief reflections on Covid and confinement. £6.99

THE LAST TRAIN: A FAMILY HISTORY OF THE FINAL SOLUTION

Peter Bradley

The author's Jewish father reached England from Latvia in 1939, only to be shipped to Canada as an enemy alien; his parents were deported from Bavaria to the Riga Ghetto, where they died. In this book, PB looks at the anti-Semitism of the Nazi period, and at its resurgence now. £20

BACK IN THE DAY: A MEMOIR Melvyn Bragg

He grew up in a Cumbrian market town during the war, living above the pub. Expected to leave school at 15, he won a scholarship to Oxford. £25

YOGA Emmanuel Carrère

A beguiling work of auto-fiction - a juggling act that Carrère refined in Limonov, The Kingdom etc. He begins a ten-day retreat, lit by the sun of literary success, but desperate matters intervene almost at once - the Charlie Hebdo killings, mania, divorce, the refugee crisis. Elusive, intelligent, compelling. £16.99

ADVENTURER: THE LIFE AND TIMES OF GIACOMO CASANOVA

Leo Damrosch

A marvellous biography of this clever, brilliant, opportunistic, amoral, inquisitive man - Damrosch's erudition serves his notorious subject very well. £25

FIVE LOVE AFFAIRS AND A FRIENDSHIP: THE PARIS LIFE OF NANCY CUNARD, ICON OF THE JAZZ AGE Anne de Courcy

AdeC is a superb social historian and here she has found a subject supremely worthy of her skill. Her cast here comprises Wyndham Lewis, Aldous Huxley, Tristan Tzara, Ezra Pound, Louis Aragon, Man Ray and many others. £22

EVERY GOOD BOY DOES FINE: A LOVE STORY, IN MUSIC LESSONS

Jeremy Denk

A memoir of the making of a pianist, and the significance of classical music nowadays. £20

SUPER-INFINITE: THE TRANSFORMATIONS OF JOHN DONNE

Katherine Rundell

Today's pre-eminent author for children is a Fellow of All Souls. Now she turns her scholarly attention to the religious outsider, social disaster, celebrity preacher, establishment darling, poet... £16.99

A RIVER RUNS THROUGH ME: A LIFE OF SALMON FISHING IN SCOTLAND Andrew Douglas-Home

Weaves tales of his own together with those of his ancient family. £14.99

HEIRESS, REBEL, VIGILANTE, BOMBER: THE EXTRAORDINARY LIFE AND TIMES OF ROSE DUGDALE Sean O'Driscoll

She grew up in Chelsea (indeed her father was a John Sandoe customer); she was a deb in 1958. Then she devoted herself to the IRA and became a terrorist. £18.99

THE LAST DAYS OF ROGER FEDERER: AND OTHER ENDINGS Geoff Dyer

Like most of the inimitable Dyer's books, this is really a book about himself: considering his own encroaching old age against that of others: Dylan, Nietzsche, Turner, Coltrane - and Federer. £20

ELIOT AFTER THE WASTE LAND Robert Crawford

Follows up his Young Eliot (2015, pbk £14.99). Draws on all correspondence including the archive with his lover Emily Hale, which remained sealed until 2020. £25

- THE SCHOOL THAT ESCAPED THE NAZIS Deborah Cadbury
The story of Anna Essinger, a German Jewish teacher who smuggled her school to England in 1933 and then fielded children arriving on the Kindertransport. £20
- I FEAR FOR THIS BOY: SOME CHAPTERS OF ACCIDENTS Theo Fennell
There is a picaresque quality to the jeweller's life, as he ricochets from Eton to financial disaster, and back. £25
- KNIGHT OF THE SHOULDER KNOT: LIFE IN SERVICE TO THE GREAT HOUSES Arthur Inch
Recollections of a long career upstairs and downstairs at Blenheim, Mount Stewart elsewhere. pbk £8
- CONSTRUCTING A NERVOUS SYSTEM: A MEMOIR Margo Jefferson
A brilliant fusion of cultural analysis and memoir, by the Pulitzer-winning author of Negroland. £16.99
- DINNER WITH JOSEPH JOHNSON: BOOKS AND FRIENDSHIP IN A REVOLUTIONARY AGE Daisy Hay
Captures the spirit of the late C18th by looking at JJ's dinner parties. He was a publisher, bookseller, and a friend of Blake, Wordsworth, Fuseli, Coleridge, Wollstonecraft etc... £25
- A ROYAL LIFE HRH The Duke of Kent & Hugo Vickers
Based on conversations with HV (who knows what questions to ask) and HRH. £25
- ANOTHER SELF James Lees-Milne
You may not get round to JL-M's diaries, but his memoir of his early years - reissued now by Slightly Foxed - is a treat. £18
- THE INTERPRETER'S DAUGHTER Teresa Lim
A resonant family memoir spanning several generations of women from C19th South China to modern Singapore. £20
- FIRE ISLAND: LOVE, LOSS AND LIBERATION IN AN AMERICAN PARADISE Jack Parlett
Hedonism, reinvention, liberation on a strip of land off the coast of New York: what it was to be young and gay - and then confront AIDS. £16.99
- THE HONG KONG DIARIES Chris Patten
1992-1997, from the Grand Panjandrum who prepared for the handover to China. £30
- I USED TO LIVE HERE ONCE: THE HAUNTED LIFE OF JEAN RHYNS Miranda Seymour
An illuminating account of the troubled writer, which gives unusual emphasis to her Caribbean background. £25
- RILKE: THE LAST INWARD MAN Lesley Chamberlain
This new biography captures how Rilke endeavoured to retain a sense of transcendence within a collapsing world. £20
- DUMBLE: THE LIFE AND DEATH OF BILLY, 10TH EARL DE LA WARR Tom Sackville
Considers his father's eccentric ancestry, dysfunctional upbringing, unusual career choices and eventual suicide. A brief and affecting memoir. £15
- HAPPY-GO-LUCKY David Sedaris
This clever, funny and humane man is outstandingly good company for a revisiting of the last couple of years. £16.99
- GOSSAMER YEARS: LOVE, PASSION AND MARRIAGE IN OLD JAPAN - THE INTIMATE DIARY OF A FEMALE COURTIER IN OLD JAPAN Edward G. Seidensticker
The diary of an unnamed noblewoman in C10th Japan. pbk £11.99
- RAPTURE AND MELANCHOLY: THE DIARIES OF EDNA ST. VINCENT MILLAY Edna St Vincent Millay, edited by Daniel Mark Epstein
First publication of the American poet's private diaries from adolescence to middle age. £25
- YOUNG BLOOMSBURY: THE GENERATION THAT REIMAGINED LOVE, FREEDOM AND SELF-EXPRESSION Nino Strachey
Opens up the world of the second Bloomsbury generation: Eddy Sackville-West, Stephen Tomlin, Julia Strachey... £25
- AS IT WAS AND WORLD WITHOUT END Helen Thomas
A Persephone reprint of the two books by HT recounting her marriage with the poet Edward Thomas. pbk £16

GREAT TALES NEVER END, THE: ESSAYS IN MEMORY OF CHRISTOPHER TOLKIEN Richard Ovenden, edited by Catherine McIlwaine

After publishing 24 volumes on his father's work over 40 years, the great Christopher Tolkien died in Jan 2022, aged 95. He won the Bodley Medal in recognition of his immense work. £40

OVER TO CANDLEFORD & CANDLEFORD GREEN Flora Thompson

Vols 2 and 3 of Flora Thompson's delightful trilogy, in a handsome clothbound edition from Slightly Foxed. (Vol 1 also available). £18

ALICE'S BOOK: HOW THE NAZIS STOLE MY GRANDMOTHER'S COOKBOOK Karina Urbach, translated by Jamie Bulloch

This is the remarkable story of the author's grandmother, whose bestselling Viennese cookbook was published by the Nazis under a false name after the Anschluss. It took decades to get it back. £20

CIRCUS OF DREAMS: ADVENTURES IN THE 1980S LITERARY WORLD

John Walsh

Literary editor, reviewer, pundit... Walsh was closely involved with the vibrant literary scene of the '80s. £25

THE PALACE PAPERS: INSIDE THE HOUSE OF WINDSOR, THE TRUTH AND THE TURMOIL Tina Brown

Picks up where The Diana Chronicles left off. £20

ANNA: THE BIOGRAPHY Amy Odell

Anna Wintour, the Queen of Conde Nast. £20

HISTORICAL

RUSSIA: REVOLUTION AND CIVIL WAR 1917-1921 Antony Beevor

A major new account of the upheavals in Russia 100 years ago, from the author of Stalingrad etc. £30

A VILLAGE IN THE THIRD REICH: HOW ORDINARY LIVES WERE TRANSFORMED BY THE RISE OF FASCISM Julia Boyd

An intimate account of life under Nazism, told through a close examination of a village in the Bavarian Alps. £25

INDIA: A HISTORY IN OBJECTS T. Richard Blurton

Same format as the excellent China: A History in Objects and The Islamic World: A History in Objects. £30

THE SIEGE OF LOYALTY HOUSE: A CIVIL WAR STORY Jessie Childs

A thrilling, detailed investigation of the Siege of Basing House, which shows up the shock of the conflict. £25

THE JOURNEY OF HUMANITY: THE ORIGINS OF WEALTH AND INEQUALITY Oded Galor

A bold, sweeping account of human history with surprises galore, which is also surprisingly uplifting. £20

THE ELIZABETHAN MIND: SEARCHING FOR THE SELF IN AN AGE OF UNCERTAINTY Helen Hackett

Where Tillyard's brilliant The Elizabethan World Picture looked outwards, this looks inwards. A deeply fascinating and empathetic study. £25

BRAVE HEARTED: THE DRAMATIC STORY OF WOMEN OF THE AMERICAN WEST Katie Hickman

Not just bar-room belles and pioneers wearing thin the soles of their boots on their immense journeys to the west, but Chinese laundresses and displaced native Americans too. Real stories, with grit and courage, rather than cinematic wallpaper. £25

BATTLES OF CONSCIENCE: BRITISH PACIFISTS AND THE SECOND WORLD WAR Tobias Kelly

The personal and political struggles of 60,000 conscientious objectors. £22

COME TO THIS COURT AND CRY: HOW THE HOLOCAUST ENDS

Linda Kinstler

An important book about historical accountability, which was sparked by the author's discovery that a convicted Nazi who had been dead for 50 years was about to have his crimes pardoned in a court in Latvia. £20

LEADERSHIP: SIX STUDIES IN WORLD STRATEGY Henry Kissinger

Adenauer, de Gaulle, Nixon, Sadat, Lee Kwan Yew, Thatcher. £25

IN THE SHADOW OF THE GODS: THE EMPEROR IN WORLD HISTORY

Dominic Lieven

After comparing the great emperors of antiquity, Lieven turns to the Habsburg, Russian, Ottoman, Mughal and Chinese emperors. Imperial in ambition and achievement. £35

THE HOUSE OF DUDLEY: A NEW HISTORY OF TUDOR ENGLAND

Joanne Paul

A scintillating account of three generations of deadly, manipulative ambition - the English Borgias? £25

ATOMS AND ASHES: FROM BIKINI ATOLL TO FUKUSHIMA

Serhii Plokhy

From pre-eminent (Ukrainian) historian of the nuclear threat. £25

THE WORM IN THE APPLE: A HISTORY OF THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY AND EUROPE FROM CHURCHILL TO CAMERON

Christopher Tugendhat By examining the history of the Conservatives, Lord Tugendhat helps us to understand why the UK left the EU. £20.00

CURRENT AFFAIRS

FREEZING ORDER Bill Browder

Subtitled 'a true story of Russian money-laundering, state-sponsored murder, and surviving Vladimir Putin's wrath': BB's exposé of the Magnitsky affair and its subsequent international ramifications has been indefatigable - remember Red Notice? - and his new book is absolutely chilling. £20

GETTING CHINA WRONG Aaron L. Friedberg

Argues that the West's strategy with China has failed: trade and contact with the West have left it more aggressive, repressive and threatening than ever. £25

EMPIRES OF EURASIA: HOW IMPERIAL LEGACIES SHAPE

INTERNATIONAL SECURITY Jeffrey Mankoff

An ambitious book that traces the collapse of empires and their ramifications in contemporary Eurasian geopolitics - in particular Iran, China, Turkey and Russia. £30

A SPECTRE, HAUNTING: ON THE COMMUNIST MANIFESTO

China Miéville

The Communist Manifesto unseamed by a fine brain - Miéville is better known as a highly successful novelist of ideas. £18.99

AUTHENTICITY: RECLAIMING REALITY IN A COUNTERFEIT CULTURE

Alice Sberwood

An original and entertaining book on the smoke and mirrors of the modern consumer's world - case studies that take apart our ideas of the real and the fake, of appearance and deception. £16.99

NO ESCAPE: THE TRUE STORY OF CHINA'S GENOCIDE OF THE UYGHURS

Nury Turkel

Turkel was born in a Chinese 're-education' camp, and finally got to the US where he trained as a lawyer, specialising in Uyghur activism. This is his account of China's horrendous oppression of the Uyghurs. £20

FICTION

THE YOUNG PRETENDER Michael Arditti An entertaining novel about a (real)

Georgian child actor making a comeback at the age of 21. £12.99

OF SUNSHINE AND BEDBUGS: ESSENTIAL STORIES

Isaac Babel, translated by Boris Dralyuk

A new selection of Babel's stories that vividly portray the rough and tumble of life in Odessa and its surroundings. pbk £12

ELIZABETH FINCH Julian Barnes

Barnes addresses philosophical and pedagogic themes in this quiet novel about the legacy of an extraordinary teacher. £16.99

EITHER/OR Elif Batuman

A cerebral and determined young woman at Harvard vigorously explores the gaps between life and art: an entertaining and lively sequel to Batuman's wonderful The Idiot. £16.99

TIEPOLO BLUE James Cabill

A Cambridge don rather stuck in his ways is repelled by an outbreak of modern art in his quad. Wafted on a cloud of academic dudgeon to London and a new job, with his vanity stoked by an old friend and mentor, he falters and begins to fall, Icarus-like. This novel is beautifully crafted and superbly told: one of the year's outstanding debuts. £14.99

BAD RELATIONS Cressida Connolly

A Crimean War hero's divorce & remarriage causes two lines of descendants, who meet up again one summer in Devon in the 1970s. Ructions ensue. Shrewdly observed and compelling. £14.99

THE ENORMOUS ROOM e. e. cummings Centenary edition of Cummings's autobiographical novel about his imprisonment in a French military detention camp during WW1. pbk £13.99

THE COLOUR STORM Damian Dibben

A rollocking historical novel set in Renaissance Venice: an artist sets his heart on a miraculous new pigment, only to find himself caught up in conspiracies, a love affair, violence, obsession... £14.99

THE GEOMETER LOBACHEVSKY Adrian Duncan

This unusual Irish novel about a man hiding out on an island comes from Colm Toibin's imprint, Tuskar Rock. £14.99

THE CANDY HOUSE Jennifer Egan

A new technology that can download a person's memory and then allows it to be shared - all of it - has taken the world by storm. Clever, funny, disconcerting. £20

ALL OUR YESTERDAYS

Natalia Ginzburg, introduction by Sally Rooney, translated by Angus Davidson

Against the backdrop of WW2 and its aftermath, a young Italian woman marries and moves to her husband's village in the south. Ginzburg's characteristically limpid prose harbours many details of her own wartime experiences. Another reprint of this great writer's works, this time of her third novel, originally published in 1952. pbk £9.99

EMERGENCY Daisy Hildyard

A Yorkshire childhood, remembered in lockdown, collides with immense global forces. Hunters in the Snow, Hildyard's previous novel - her first - was excellent. pbk £12.99

GODMERSHAM PARK Gill Hornby

A romantic novel that brings together a governess - endowed with both sense and sensibility - with the Austen family, in 1804. £14.99

JUST FOR TODAY: THE PARTY HAS TO END SOMETIME Nell Hudson

A New Year's Eve party casts a long shadow: a debut about the loss of innocence and the consequences of love. £16.99

IMPOSSIBLE Erri de Luca, translated by N. S. Thompson

Two men go walking in the Dolomites, but not together; one falls to his death, the other reports the body. Is it merely coincidence that they knew each other in earlier years, and that one had betrayed the other? The taut dialogue between the investigating magistrate and the suspect, an old political hand in solitary confinement, keeps the reader on a knife edge. £14.99

ALL THE LOVERS IN THE NIGHT

Mieko Kawakami, translated by Sam Bett & David Boyd

A young woman in Tokyo takes a few tentative steps outward after years of isolation. Kawakami's unsettling lyricism and candour about ordinary modern lives have made her one of Japan's most important contemporary writers. pbk £14.99

TRESPASSES Louise Kennedy

A powerful debut novel set in Northern Ireland during the Troubles: a young woman embarks on an affair with a married man, and - inevitably - there are consequences, sharpened by the layering of the political with the personal. £14.99

THE WAR FOR GLORIA

Atticus Lish A second novel from the author of Preparation for the Next Life, in which a young man confronts his estranged father and protects his ailing mother. Lish's writing is spare but precise, with a great emotional punch but no sentimentality. £16.99

LAPVONA Ottessa Moshfegh

A disturbing tale of superstition and feudalism in a medieval hamlet. £14.99

THE MEN Sandra Newman

Everyone with a Y-chromosome disappears overnight in this new novel by the author of The Heavens. Apocalypse or Utopia? £14.99

SPIES IN CANAAN David Park

A retired Vietnam veteran receives a package in the post that shows him that he has more to do before he is done with the past. A desert crossing blurs with his inner journey - a very fine novel of guilt and atonement. £16.99

THE SECRET LIVES OF CHURCH LADIES Deesha Phibyan

Stories of the unfaithful, unrepentant, unrequited, unresolved... This prize-winning debut collection is funny, dry and punchy. £14.99

RUTH & PEN Emilie Pine

A day in the life of two women navigating grief and love, isolation and self-determination: a first and very intelligent novel from the author of Notes to Self. £14.99

HOMEWARD FROM HEAVEN Boris Poplansky Born in Russia, Poplansky fled to Paris in the Revolution, where he became a literary and artistic enfant terrible of the emigré circles of Montparnasse. This novel, translated into English for the first time, captures the life of young Russian exiles in Paris and the French Riviera in the 1920s. £34

YOU HAVE A FRIEND IN 10A: STORIES Maggie Shipstead

A volume of stories from the Booker-shortlisted author of last year's Great Circle. £16.99

COMPANION PIECE Ali Smith

Smith's new novel stands on its own (very contemporary) feet but also works as a coda to her 'Seasonal Quartet'. £16.99

YOUNG MUNGO Douglas Stuart

A powerful second novel from the author of Shuggie Bain: love across the sectarian divide in working-class Glasgow. £16.99

FIGHT NIGHT Miriam Toews

A memorable and delightful old woman – with much in common with Monty Python's Hell's Grannies – takes on the education of an edgy granddaughter. £14.99

HERE GOES NOTHING Steve Toltz

A marvellous dose of black humour: an atheist is murdered, only to discover that not only is there an afterlife but also his widow is getting a bit too close to his killer. £18.99

POLLAK'S ARM Hans von Trotha, translated by Elisabeth Lauffer

Ludwig Pollak was the art dealer-scholar who found the missing arm of Laocoön, in the famous classical sculpture. In this mysterious, cerebral novella set in Rome in 1943, he is exhorted to seek refuge in the Vatican, but instead spins out the hours in reminiscence... pbk £12.99

THRILLERS

YESTERDAY'S SPY Tom Bradby

A midnight phone call precipitates an aging, embittered agent into a dash to Iran to find his son and do battle with competing international interests. £14.99

THE LOVER Helene Flood, translated by Alison McCullough

Adulterous deceptions twist and unravel when a body is found. £16.99

WITH A MIND TO KILL Anthony Horowitz

James Bond in fine form again. £20

TOKYO EXPRESS Seicho Matsumoto

A slick whodunnit in the manner of Simenon. pbk £12.99

THE SANCTUARY Andrew Hunter Murray

Shocks await the brave protagonist when he goes to win back his fiancée, working for a dark horse on a remote Hebridean island... £14.99

DEATH ON GOKUMON ISLAND Seishi Yokomizo

Pushkin Press have been having fun with these classic Japanese thrillers from the mid C20th - and so have we. A locked room mystery that deliciously echoes Christie's And Then There Were None. By the author of The Inugami Curse and others. pbk £8.99

POETRY

JOIE DE VIVRE Paul Bailey

Celebrations of life and mournings of the dead. pbk £10

THE WREN Julia Blackburn

Quiet utterances like snatches of conversation, from the magnificent JB. These brief reflections and observations are not quite poetry, not quite prose - an absolute joy to read and to pause over. pbk £10

THE LASCAUX NOTEBOOKS Jean-Luc Champerret, edited by Philip Terry

Interpreting the runes – apparently the poet has translated the ‘Stone Age language’ of the cave paintings – ‘tentatively’. We are agog. pbk £19.99

MEMO FOR SPRING: 50TH ANNIVERSARY EDITION

Liz Lochbead, introduction by Ali Smith

Reissue of her landmark collection from 1972. pbk £10

EMBLEM Lucy Mercer

A first collection; LM won the inaugural White Review Poet's Prize. pbk £12.

THE PENGUIN BOOK OF SPIRITUAL VERSE: 100 POETS ON THE DIVINE

Edited by Kaveh Akbar The divine book of penguin verse. The verse book of the divine penguin. Or something. From 2300 BC Sumerian utterances to Rumi, Black, Dickinson, Tagore, etc. Wonderful. £20

100 POEMS Umberto Saba, translated by Patrick Worsnip

A last, a good selection of poems from the great Triestine poet (and bookseller). pbk £14.99

TIME IS A MOTHER Ocean Vuong

A second collection. His novel, On Earth We're Briefly Gorgeous was a bestseller and his first collection Night Sky With Exit Wounds won the TS Eliot prize. £14.99

IDEAS & CULTURE

FREEDOM TO THINK: THE LONG STRUGGLE TO LIBERATE OUR MINDS Susie Alegre

A human rights lawyer charts both the history of how the powerful have tried to get inside our heads and also provides a framework to understand how our agency is undermined nowadays. £20

SOME OF OUR RECENT FAVOURITES

WILL SHE DO?: ACT ONE OF A LIFE ON STAGE Eileen Atkins

This marvellous memoir of her youth in Tottenham ends when her theatrical career takes off: forthright, transparent, dry, funny - there is nothing remotely precious about Dame Eileen's account of herself. This is a delight! hbk £20.00/ pbk £9.99

THE MAKIOKA SISTERS Junichiro Tanizaki, translated by Edward G. Seidensticker

Had Mrs Gaskell lived in Japan and a century later, she might have written this intimate portrait of four sisters of good family living in Osaka in somewhat straitened circumstances. Their efforts to find a suitable husband for the third sister take place in the years and months just before the great wave of WW2 broke over Japan., in two formats. hbk £12.99 / pbk £10.99

OUR WIVES UNDER THE SEA Julia Armfield

This debut novel, in which a woman returns from a voyage to the deep sea strangely altered, is a slippery marriage of the mundane and the uncanny. Structured around the zones of the ocean - Sunlight, Twilight, Midnight, Abyssal, Hadal - it works on us not only as a descent into grief, but an Ovidian fable and, finally, a love story. £16.99

MY PEN IS THE WING OF A BIRD: NEW FICTION BY AFGHAN WOMEN

Introduction by Lyse Doucet

Contemporary short fiction from Afghanistan, all written before the Taliban retook power in August 2021. An extraordinary collection brought into being through the efforts of UNTOLD's Write Afghanistan project. pbk £12.00

LESS THAN ONE: SELECTED ESSAYS Joseph Brodsky

The great Russian poet became a master of the English language in his long American exile: these essays evoke his youth in post-WW2 Leningrad with memorable portraits of his parents, in whom he sees the personification of the mute suffering of the Russian people in the last century. He also writes with feeling, precision and intelligence about Auden, Akhmatova, Mandelstam, Cavafy and others as well as on the broader themes of tyranny and civilisation. pbk £14.99

THE SNOWS OF YESTERYEAR: PORTRAITS FOR AN AUTOBIOGRAPHY

Gregor von Rezzori

Born in 1914 in Czernovitz in what is now Ukraine, the author was successively a citizen of Austro-Hungary, Romania and the Soviet Union as the bloody tides of the C20th swept to and fro before becoming stateless. This extraordinary memoir - unsentimental, startlingly clear, often shocking - is written through portraits of his mother, his father, his sister and his remarkable Ruthenian wetnurse/nanny, who spoke several languages but none fluently. No nostalgia here but instead a vivid and unforgettable portrait of a vanished world whose shades remain with us, intensely so. "Mais où sont les neiges d'antan?" pbk £12.99

WINTER IS COMING Garry Kasparov

Written in 2015 by the chess grandmaster and human rights activist, this passionate indictment of Russian kleptocracy is also a warning against the complacency of Western democracies in the face of Putinism. Sharp, impassioned and prescient. pbk £12.99

MRS MARCH Virginia Feito

A New York housewife believes that the grotesque protagonist of her husband's novel is based on her. The ensuing paranoid spiral is gripping enough to satisfy any Hitchcock fan... £14.99

THE ANOMALY Hervé Le Tellier, translated by Adriana Hunter

A plane inexplicably duplicates when caught in a storm. One plane lands in March; the other in June. As for the duplicated passengers... From this speculative premise comes an engrossing drama, brimming with wry humour. Won the Prix Goncourt, 2020. £14.99

A HOUSE PARTY IN TUSCANY Amber Guinness

Wildly delicious, deliciously straightforward - a celebration of good ingredients, sluiced with new olive oil and nipped with a pinch of salt...The beautiful farmhouse of Arniano - Amber's family home and now host as well to a painting school - adds a very seductive element to her feasts. £29.99

STRANDBEEST: THE DREAM MACHINES OF THEO JANSEN

Lena Herzog & Lawrence Weschler

Jansen's unusual genius makes one think of Quixote and Leonardo: his huge kinetic sculptures that roam the flat beaches of Holland are extraordinary, wondrous beasts - winged, multi-limbed, catching the breeze... "The line between art and engineering lies only in our minds..." says he, as he expunges that habitual boundary. Lavish photographs, mostly black and white. £60
