

JOHN SANDOE (BOOKS) LTD

10 Blacklands Terrace, Chelsea, London SW3 2SR
020 7589 9473
sales@johnsandoe.com www.johnsandoe.com

SUMMER BOOKS 2022

Price and availability may be subject to occasional revision

BIOGRAPHY

HENRY 'CHIPS' CHANNON: THE DIARIES (VOLUME 3)

Edited by Simon Heffer The third and final volume of the complete diaries. £35.00

ONE KENSINGTON: TALES FROM THE FRONTLINE OF THE MOST UNEQUAL BOROUGH IN BRITAIN

Emma Dent Coad The author is a councillor in K & C. We wait with curiosity to see whether she has anything to say about her local bookshop. £20.00

MARCIA: THE LIFE OF LADY FALKENDER

Linda McDougall The first biography of one of the most important women in C20th British politics: said to be the power behind Harold Wilson. £20.00

CLOUDS OVER PARIS: THE WARTIME NOTEBOOKS OF FELIX HARTLAUB

Felix Hartlaub, translated by Simon Beattie, introduction by Rudiger Goerner After graduating in Germany in 1939, FH was sent as an archivist to Paris, where he documented ordinary life throughout the war. He vanished in Berlin in 1945 and this is the first publication of his work in English. £14.99

HENRIETTA MARIA: CONSPIRATOR, WARRIOR, PHOENIX QUEEN

Leanda de Lisle From the author of The White King, the excellent book on her HM's uxorious husband. £25.00

ELUSIVE: HOW PETER HIGGS SOLVED THE MYSTERY OF MASS

Frank Close The reclusive Higgs posited the existence of his particle in a paper in 1964. It was 2012 before it was confirmed at the Large Hadron Collider at CERN. A superb study of a scientist and his era. £25.00

THE MANDELA BRIEF: SYDNEY KENTRIDGE AND THE TRIALS OF APARTHEID

Thomas Grant A valuable account of one of the greatest advocates in modern history, revered not only in South Africa but around the globe as a defendant of the rule of law. £25.00

DANDELIONS

Thea Lenarduzzi Pieces together three generations of a family, moving between Italy and England, in an attempt to understand what roots and home might mean. Subtle, charming memoir. pbk £12.99

DIPLOMATIC BAGGAGE: ADVENTURES OF A TRAILING SPOUSE

Brigid Keenan A reprint of her delightful account of being the wife of Our Man in Damascus, Almaty and other places. pbk £9.99

A FACTOTUM IN THE BOOK TRADE

Marius Kociejowski Marius is the distinguished antiquarian bookseller who features in the work of Javier Marias and worked for Bernard Stone and Peter Ellis; also a wide-ranging writer, most recently on Naples. This memoir has been published, in Canada, where MK was born. It is a hymn to the book trade and literary culture, an amazing trove of arcana, deep culture and gossip. pbk £13.99

LOOK! WE HAVE COME THROUGH!: LIVING WITH D. H. LAWRENCE

Lara Feigel Thinking and writing about DHL during the pandemic, Feigel found that his ideas affected her own outlook: this is an intriguing blend of biography and memoir. £20.00

TOO MUCH OF LIFE: COMPLETE CHRONICLES

Clarice Lispector, translated by Margaret Jull Costa & Robin Patterson An elegant Penguin edition of Lispector’s despatches on daily life for the Jornal do Brasil between 1967 and 1977. pbk £20.00

MEMOIRS

Robert Lowell All of Lowell’s autobiographical writings, almost all of which have never been published before, unearthed from the Harvard Archive. Youth, his mental illness, glimpses of Plath, Eliot, Pound, Berryman et alia. £40.00

AND FINALLY: MATTERS OF LIFE AND DEATH

Henry Marsh The retired neurosurgeon (and bestselling author of Do No Harm) becomes a patient when he is diagnosed with cancer. £18.99

THE CHIEF: THE LIFE OF LORD NORTHCLIFFE BRITAIN’S GREATEST PRESS BARON

Andrew Roberts Does Roberts ever sleep? Here is a large biog of the founder of modern journalism, founder of the Daily Mail and Daily Express who also owned the Sunday Times and the Observer. £25.00

PUTIN: HIS LIFE AND TIMES

Philip Short The most substantial account so far of what shaped Putin and why he retains widespread support in Russia. £30.00

THE MAN WHO UNDERSTOOD DEMOCRACY: THE LIFE OF ALEXIS DE TOCQUEVILLE

Olivier Zunz The French aristocrat who became one of democracy’s greatest champions, both in America and Europe. £28.00

PRIVATE NOTEBOOKS: 1914-1916

Ludwig Wittgenstein, translated by Marjorie Perloff The first-person recollections of a foot soldier in the Austrian Army, fresh from his student days at Cambridge, grappling with the stirrings of a forbidden sexuality and the formation of a new analytical philosophy. Perloff’s translation was no ordinary undertaking... the diaries were written in code. £18.99

HISTORY

AFRICAN AND CARIBBEAN PEOPLE IN BRITAIN: A HISTORY

Hakim Adi Libyans on Hadrian’s Wall, the ‘Black Tudors’... The Windrush generation were not the first, as this remarkable work makes clear. £25.00

RUSSIA: MYTHS AND REALITIES: THE HISTORY OF A COUNTRY WITH AN UNPREDICTABLE PAST

Rodric Braithwaite A pithy introduction from a former ambassador, and author of Afgantsy. £16.99

THE RUSSIA CONUNDRUM: HOW THE WEST FELL FOR PUTIN’S POWER GAMBIT – AND HOW TO FIX IT

Mikhail Khodorkovsky & Martin Sixsmith The exiled oligarch offers his views on what has gone wrong. £20.00

FRAGILE CARGO: CHINA’S WARTIME RACE TO SAVE THE TREASURES OF THE FORBIDDEN CITY

Adam Brookes The story of the brave curators who navigated the horrors of 16 years of war to save countless priceless wonders. £20.00

CAIRO 1921: TEN DAYS THAT MADE THE MIDDLE EAST

C. Brad Faught An account of the Cairo Conference, in which the map of the Middle East was redrawn, establishing the states of Iraq and Jordan and confirming a Jewish homeland in Palestine. £20.00

KNOWLEDGE AND INFORMATION: THE POTENTIAL AND PERIL OF HUMAN INTELLIGENCE

Peter Frankopan, Jessica Frazier & Adrian Wooldridge The first in a new series of thematic history books by distinguished authors. £20.00

A PIPELINE RUNS THROUGH IT: THE STORY OF OIL FROM ANCIENT TIMES TO THE FIRST WORLD WAR

Keith Fisher Many readers will remember Daniel Yergin's brilliant history of oil, Prize, but that was 30 years ago and things look pretty different now. Here is the backdrop to Marriott & Macalister's superb Crude Britannia. £35.00

COMMAND: THE POLITICS OF MILITARY OPERATIONS FROM KOREA TO UKRAINE

Lawrence Freedman From a great historian of strategy and one of the authors of the Chilcot Enquiry (remember that?). £30.00

TWO HOUSES, TWO KINGDOMS: A HISTORY OF FRANCE AND ENGLAND, 1100-1300

Catherine Hanley Love, murder, games of thrones among Capetians and Angevins. £25.00

A QUESTION OF STANDING: THE HISTORY OF THE CIA

Rhodri Jeffreys-Jones 75 years of intelligence gathering, including dirty tricks and their consequences. £20.00

CONVOYS: THE BRITISH STRUGGLE AGAINST NAPOLEONIC EUROPE AND AMERICA

Roger Knight The author of one of the best books on Nelson looks at one of the key elements in the development of the British Empire. £25.00

THE LIGHTHOUSE OF STALINGRAD: THE HIDDEN TRUTH AT THE CENTRE OF WWIP'S GREATEST BATTLE

Iain MacGregor Looks at the pivotal WW2 battle through the lens of the building at the city's centre also known as Pavlov's House. £25.00

COLDITZ: PRISONERS OF THE CASTLE

Ben Macintyre Perhaps it was only a matter of time before Macintyre updated the Pat Reid book that most (male) customers read as teenagers. £25.00

IN SEARCH OF US: ADVENTURES IN ANTHROPOLOGY

Lucy Moore By looking at the work and methods of thirteen C20th anthropologists, LM shows how they ended by changing how we see ourselves as much as the 'primitive' societies they were studying. £17.99

SCOTLAND: THE GLOBAL HISTORY: 1603 TO THE PRESENT

Murray Pittock From James VI's accession to the English throne: Highland Jacobites, imperial diaspora... £25.00

BEHIND CLOSED DOORS: THE SECRET LIFE OF LONDON PRIVATE MEMBERS' CLUBS

Seth Alexander Théoσζ Their rise, decline and surprising resurgence; includes women's and working-class as well as men's and aristocratic. Anecdotes galore. £25.00

THE SHORES OF BOHEMIA: A CAPE COD STORY, 1910-1960

John Taylor Williams A portrait of the utopia created by Eugene O'Neill, de Kooning, Josef and Anni Albers, Emma Goldman, Mary McCarthy, Edward Hopper, Walter Gropius and many others. £30.00

SECOND CITY: BIRMINGHAM AND THE FORGING OF MODERN BRITAIN

Richard Vinen From the author of the prize-winning book on National Service. £25.00

A HISTORY OF WATER: BEING AN ACCOUNT OF A MURDER, AN EPIC AND TWO VISIONS OF GLOBAL HISTORY

Edvard Wilson-Lee A brilliant narrative of the interconnected lives of two Renaissance Portuguese men whose travels to India and China unseated contemporary certainties. Dazzling. £25.00

MAGNIFICENT REBELS: THE FIRST ROMANTICS AND THE INVENTION OF SELF

Andrea Wulf The Jena set: Caroline Schlegel's salon in the 1790s, in that small German university town, included Novalis, Schiller, Hegel, Goethe, Humboldt et alia. They radically changed our minds while the French Revolution changed the political landscape. (Was Schlegel a kinswoman of the sisters in Howard's End?) £25.00

FICTION

WRITING FROM UKRAINE: FICTION, POETRY AND ESSAYS SINCE 1965

Edited by Mark Andryczyk Ukrainian writing has flourished since the end of Soviet rule. This is an illuminating anthology. pbk £10.99

BITTER ORANGE TREE

Jokba Albarthi, translated by Marilyn Booth A young Omani woman at university in Britain... From the International Booker author of Celestial Bodies. £14.99

OF SAINTS AND MIRACLES

Manuel Astur, translated by Claire Wadie A luminous portrayal of a young outlaw in the mountains of northwest Spain. Lyrical and hard by turns. pbk £12.99

WATER OVER STONES

Bernardo Atxaga, translated by Margaret Jull Costa & Thomas Bunstead Traces the changes in a Basque mining town from 1972 onwards. pbk £16.99

LIVING PICTURES

Polina Barskova, translated by Catherine Ciepiela A patchwork of memoir, archival material and fiction deriving from the WW2 Siege of Leningrad, where PB grew up. pbk £10.99

VENOMOUS LUMPSUCKER

Ned Beaman A jolly comedy about environmental catastrophe. £20.00

ALL THE BROKEN PLACES

John Boyne An aged lady in London finds herself caught up in her neighbours' problems. To help will mean revealing herself as the daughter of a Nazi camp guard. A return to old haunts for the author of The Boy In The Striped Pyjamas. £20.00

FROM THE ABYSS: WEIRD FICTION, 1907-1945

D. K. Broster Renowned for her Jacobite Trilogy, she also wrote superb supernatural short stories that have been out of print for several decades. pbk £12.99

A STREET SHAKEN BY LIGHT: THE STORY OF WILLIAM NEILSON, VOLUME I

James Buchan Set in Paris, India and Calcutta, this delightful picaresque adventure owes something to both Kim and Kidnapped. Written in bracing C18th language by a genius. £16.99

THE HOUSE OF FORTUNE

Jessie Burton A sequel to her bestselling The Miniaturist, set in Amsterdam in 1705. £16.99

SOJOURN

Amit Chaudhuri Subtle novel following an Indian professor's disorienting visit to Berlin. £14.99

EDEN

Jim Crace Another mysterious tale in which the gardeners of eden, who serve huge angelic birds, are threatened with turmoil when one of their number escapes over the wall. £16.99

TRUST

Hernan Diaz Already a runaway success in the US, this tale of greed, power and literary mystery in C20th USA is clever and compelling. £16.99

THE PACHINKO PARLOUR

Elisa Shua Dusapin, translated by Aneesa Abbas Higgins An intelligent novel about identity and alienation, set in Tokyo. pbk £9.99

AFTER DARKE

Rick Gekoski The third in the sequence of funny, sharp novels about the irritable, ageing and bookish Darke – following Darke and Darke Matter. £18.99

THE PEOPLE IMMORTAL

Vasily Grossman, translated by Robert & Elizabeth Chandler His third great war novel, but considerably slimmer than Life and Fate and Stalingrad. £25.00

THE LAST WHITE MAN

Mobsin Hamid A man wakes up to find that his skin has turned dark. Deliberate echoes of Kafka. £12.99

THE TWILIGHT WORLD

Werner Herzog The first novel from the venerable film director, in which a Japanese soldier defends a small island for 29 years after the end of WW2. £14.99

THE UNFOLDING

A. M. Homes Set in the USA, where The Big Guy struggles to understand what is happening as his daughter's ideas and values diverge from his own. £20.00

THE WHITE ROCK

Anna Hope Four characters and four centuries converge on a tiny Mexican island. £14.99

THE TURBAN AND THE HAT

Sonallah Ibrahim, translated by Bruce Fudge A novel of Napoleonic Egypt, translated from the Arabic. The title and the translator's name, at least, are irresistible. £17.99

AMY AND LAN

Sadie Jones A beautifully composed take on the rural dream, in which children are not so innocent as they appear and adults are liable to betray. £16.99

A BOOK OF FALSEHOODS

Jaán Kross, translated by Merike Lepasaar Beecher The final part of his superb medieval Estonian trilogy 'Between Three Plagues'. pbk £16.99

LIBERATION

Sandor Marai, translated by Len Rix The Russian siege of German-occupied Budapest in 1944, seen through the eyes of a young woman. From the author of the bestselling Embers. £16.99

ANCESTRY: A NOVEL

Simon Mawer Looking back 200 years, the author of The Glass Room imagines the lives of four people through the lens of having a common descendant. £18.99

LESSONS

Ian McEwan In his longest novel so far, McEwan looks at the span of a man's life from Suez to Covid, considering the effects of global events and personal trauma. £20.00

KAFKA ON THE SHORE / NORWEGIAN WOOD / THE WIND-UP BIRD CHRONICLE

Haruki Murakami Three hardback reissues, each with a new introduction by the author. £20.00

LIFE CEREMONY

Sayaka Murata, translated by Ginny Tapley Takemori Short stories set in corporate Tokyo from the author of Convenience Store Woman, her prose as cool as her characters are chilling. pbk £12.99

UNDERCURRENT

Barney Norris Meeting a girl from many years ago, a 30-something-year-old man is at a crossroads: should he stick with history and duty, or write his own story? £16.99

MARRIAGE PORTRAIT

Maggie O'Farrell Meeting a girl from many years ago, a 30-something-year-old man is at a crossroads: should he stick with history and duty, or write his own story? £25.00

ON JAVA ROAD

Lawrence Osborne An unsettling story of colonial values and pro-democracy protests coming together in Hong Kong. £16.99

A HUNGER

Ross Raisin A sous-chef at a high-end London restaurant is caught between work and caring for her husband with dementia. Fraught and precise, from the author of God's Own Country. £16.99

THE QUEEN OF DIRT ISLAND

Donal Ryan A novel about four generations of women and the ties that bind them. £14.99

AUTOBIOGRAPHIES OF AN ANGEL: A NOVEL

Gabor Schein, translated by Otilie Mulzet The history of a Jewish Hungarian family told across three centuries, beginning with the adoption of an orphaned German boy by a C18th Italian painter. £20.00

PUNISHMENT

Ferdinand von Schirach, translated by Kat Hall More powerful courtroom tales from the author of Crime, Guilt and others. £12.99

TELLURIA

Vladimir Sorokin, translated by Max Lawton In a future world that has reverted to chaos akin to the Middle Ages, there is a drug that can induce bliss – but it will kill you if incorrectly administered... pbk £15.99

A VERY OLD MAN: STORIES

Italo Svevo, translated by Frederika Randall Originally written as parts of a novel set in Trieste after WW1, which he never completed, these linked stories have not previously been published in English. pbk £12.99

THE SORCERER OF PYONGYANG

Marvel Theroux A North Korean boy comes across a mysterious game; deciphering its rules will send him to the heart of the political cult around him. Draws off MT's own experience of North Korea. £16.99

RETROSPECTIVE

Juan Gabriel Vasquez, translated by Anne McLean Using episodes in the life of the film director Sergio Cabrera, the Colombian novelist shows how ideologies mark personal lives. £20.00

EULOGY FOR THE LIVING – TAKING FLIGHT

Christa Wolf, translated by Katy Derbyshire A novella by the celebrated East German writer about growing up under Nazism. pbk £7.99

BONSAI

Alejandro Zambra, translated by Megan McDowell A story of love, art and memory in Chile. pbk £9.99

THRILLERS

FAREWELL FOUNTAIN STREET

Selcuk Altun, translated by Mel Kenne & Nilgun Dungan Skulduggery in Istanbul. pbk £8.99

THE RED NOTEBOOK

Michel Bassi, translated by Vineet Lal Gripping thriller set in Marseille by the author of Black Water Lilies and others. £14.99

TRESPASS

Clare Clark Trust and betrayal play out over years in this story of undercover operations, activism and affairs of the heart. £16.99

THE ENIGMA OF ROOM 622

Joel Dicker, translated by Robert Bononno An Alpine hotel with a room missing, a private bank in Switzerland, skulduggery over an inheritance, a ravishing young woman – just some of the layers in this fiendish onion of a novel. £20.00

THE INK BLACK HEART

Robert Galbraith Another complicated outing for Cormoran Strike and Robin Ellacott, J. K. Rowling's ingenious sleuthing duo. £25.00

THE TWIST OF A KNIFE

Anthony Horowitz Once again the author stars in his own work – this time one of his knives is found adorning the dead body of a critic who had just savaged his new play. And now the poor love finds himself in jail... £20.00

THE ANGELS OF VENICE

Philipp Gwynne Jones An English art historian is found dead in a Venetian bookshop after a bad flood. It's in the via dei Assassini, and her death and its consequences are anything but peaceful. Jolly dark stuff. £16.99

QUEEN & COUNTRY

Alan Judd Spy thriller by a master: people are dying in strange circumstances around the country, and they all appear to be Russian defectors. £16.99

DARK MUSIC

David Lagercrantz, translated by Ian Giles First in a new series of Swedish crime by the author of The Girl in the Spider's Web. Meticulously crafted. £20.00

THE LAST PARTY

Clare Mackintosh The host of a New Year's party near Abergavenny is found drowned the next day: DC Ffion Morgan, from the same small village, finds that more than one person in her tight-knit community may have wanted him in dead. How green is my valley? How cold is his body... £14.99

THE BULLET THAT MISSED

Richard Osman The Thursday Murder Club strikes again – escapist, clever, fun, and gripping without risk of a heart attack. £20.00

THE INVISIBLE

Peter Papathanasiou An Australian police sergeant returns to the land of his forebears, on the border of Greece, Albania and North Macedonia and is drawn into an investigation into a missing person. An exemplar – apparently – of 'outback noir'. £16.99

THE PARTISAN

Patrick Worrall A chess tournament in the Cold War is the starting point for this classy and compelling spy thriller; soon we are whisked to Cambridge, Lithuania, Vienna, the GDR, the Kremlin... £16.99

A GRAIN OF TRUTH

Christian Unge, translated by George Goulding & Sarah de Senarclens Things start to go wrong in a Stockholm hospital and Dr Tekla Berg, a senior doctor, must save lives even faster than usual while solving the mystery of an untraceable and nameless young boy. £20.00

POETRY, ESSAYS, CULTURE

THE COMPLETE WORKS OF W. H. AUDEN: POEMS

W. H. Auden, edited by Edward Mendelson In the multi-volume 'Complete Auden' from Princeton, here at last are the 2 vols of poetry. £48.00 each

THE GLOUCESTER NOTEBOOK

T.S. Eliot, introduction by Robert McCrum A facsimile, with transcriptions, of Eliot's poetry notebook up to 1917. Includes an early version of 'The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock'. This has lurked for decades in the New York Public Library. £25.00

THE SLAIN BIRDS

Michael Longley Nature, both its collapse and the restorative haven of Carrigskeewaun, Co. Mayo, threads this new collection. pbk £12.00

THE ILLUSTRATED WOMAN

Helen Mort A new collection from the award-winning Sheffield poet: the Lake District, Greenland, women's bodies... pbk £12.99

PERDENDOSI

Edmund de Waal, photographs by Norman McBeath A dozen photographic studies of dead leaves by the great NM, with acutely sensitive textual responses by EdeW: a small wonder from a tiny press. pbk £12.00

FATHER'S ON THE PHONE WITH THE FLIES: A SELECTION

Herta Muller, translated by Thomas Cooper The first translation of Muller's collage poems into English. pbk £11.99

THE ARCTIC

Don Paterson A new collection by an old and supremely talented hand; also renderings of Cavafy, Montale et alia. £14.99

INVITATION TO VIEW

Peter Scupham The late poet's final works, almost titled Curtain Call. pbk £11.99

STAG CULT

Martin Shaw A haunting bricolage from the West Country writer and poet, half in myth, half in the Dartmoor landscape. pbk £10.00

THE SUN ON THE TIP OF A SNAIL'S SHELL

Maggie Wang Debut from an emerging young poet, concerned with the loss of species and what it means to be human in the midst of this destruction. pbk £10.00

A SUMMER DAY IN THE COMPANY OF GHOSTS

Wang Yin, translated by Andrea Lingenfelter A collection of this important Chinese poet's work that spans his career, from the 1980s to the present. Lyrical yet restrained, sometimes raw, infused with Chinese classical imagery and a certain detachment. pbk £12.99

THE PENGUIN BOOK OF INDIAN POETS

Edited by Jeet Thayil The definitive edition of Indian poets writing in English for the last century: 1000 poems, some essays and photographs too. Published in India. £55.00

ANIMAL JOY: A BOOK OF LAUGHTER AND RESUSCITATION

Nuar Alsadir A literary and psychoanalytical first cousin to the Bombay Laughing Club: a book about laughter and the unconscious, with philosophy, poetry, memoir and the tragi-comedy of clowns thrown in to the mix, that will draw a few explosions of gaiety from readers. pbk £12.99

THE TABLET OF DESTINIES

Roberto Calasso A re-telling of the earliest flood myth by the late, very great and greatly missed Calasso. £18.99

OPENINGS & OUTINGS: AN ANTHOLOGY

David Pryce-Jones Essays, encounters and reportage from 50 years of thinking and writing. pbk £17.99

A GOOD AND DIGNIFIED LIFE: THE POLITICAL ADVICE OF HANNAH ARENDT AND ROSA LUXEMBURG

Joke J Hermsen, translated by Brendan Monaghan Translated from the Dutch, an essay on the thinking of these extraordinary women and how it might be applied now. £12.99

ART & PHOTOGRAPHY

IF THESE APPLES SHOULD FALL: CEZANNE AND THE PRESENT

T. J. Clark Why was Cézanne revered by Rilke and Beckett, Picasso and Matisse? And does that early modernity speak to us now? An illustrated, ravishing study of Cézanne's uneasy art by the great emeritus professor. £30.00

EVELYN & WILLIAM DE MORGAN: A MARRIAGE OF ARTS & CRAFTS

Edited by Margaretta Frederick A sublime partnership. Illustrated. £35.00

BRIDGET RILEY DRAWINGS: FROM THE ARTIST'S STUDIO

Edited by Jay A. Clarke & Rachel Federman et al Drawings that span the entirety of the artist's career, from her own archive. £25.00

NINETEENTH-CENTURY FRENCH PAINTINGS IN THE ASHMOLEAN MUSEUM

Jon Whiteley Complete catalogue of the Ashmolean's collection by French artists born between 1775 and 1875: Boilly, Fantin-Latour, Cezanne, Manet, the three Pissaros, Monet, Matisse etc. £125.00

ADVENTURE IN ART

Lucy Carrington Wertheim LCW's 1947 memoir of her life as a gallerist; at the Wertheim Gallery she showed a swathe of English Modernist artists – Alfred Wallis, Christopher Wood, Barbara Hepworth, Henry Moore, Cedric Morris et alia. With essays by Frances Spalding, Ariane Bankes and Karen Taylor and many illustrations, this is published to coincide with an exhibition this summer at the Towner Eastbourne – 'A Life in Art: Lucy Wertheim, Patron, Collector, Gallerist'. £30.00

TRANSPACIFIC ENGAGEMENTS: TRADE, TRANSLATION, AND VISUAL CULTURE OF ENTANGLED EMPIRES (1565-1898)

Edited by Florina H Capistrano-Baker & Meha Priyadarshini Essays on cultural and artistic exchange in the age of imperialism as European powers vied for domination of the oceanic routes between Asia and the Americas. Illustrated. £45.00

CROSSROADS: DRAWING THE DUTCH LANDSCAPE

Edited by Joanna Sheers Seidenstein & Susan Anderson Essays on the emergence of landscape as a subject for depiction in its own right in the C16th and C17th, coinciding with the expansion of Dutch commercial and colonial interests. Illustrated. £40.00

JAPAN ARTS AND LIFE: THE MONTGOMERY COLLECTION

Edited by Francesco Paolo Campione The catalogue to accompany an exhibition at Museo delle Culture di Lugano in the Villa Malpensata, home to the Montgomery Collection. Textiles, paintings, objects of quotidian use, etc. £40.00

BEYOND EAST AND WEST: MEMOIRS, PORTRAITS AND ESSAYS

Bernard Leach A re-issue of Leach's book, first published in 1978. Born in Hong Kong, he later lived for many years in Japan where he trained as a potter; eventually he settled near St Ives, built a Japanese-style kiln and became the father of British Studio pottery. £25.00

THE ART LOVER'S GUIDE TO JAPANESE MUSEUMS

Sophie Richard A splendid guide to over a hundred museums not only in Tokyo but far beyond – in Kyoto, Hokkaido, Okinawa, Shikoku, Kyushu, etc. Includes museums of traditional arts and artist's houses, as well as contemporary galleries. pbk £24.95

A WORLD HISTORY OF WOMEN PHOTOGRAPHERS

Edited by Luce Lebart & Marie Robert From the C19th to the early C21st – 300 women photographers from around the world. £60.00

VIVIAN MAIER

Anne Morin & Christa Blumlinger et al A retrospective of Maier's extraordinary body of work, arranged thematically – self-portraits, the street, portraits, gestures, cinematography, children, etc. £45.00

ROSAMOND PURCELL: NATURE STANDS ASIDE

Gordon Wilkins & Mark Dion This well-known American photographer is fascinated with cabinets of curiosity and the idea of the Wunderkammer: a retrospective presentation of her idiosyncratic and sublime work. £47.95

ARCHITECTURE & DECORATIVE ARTS

FORTUNY: TIME, SPACE, LIGHT

Wendy Ligon Smith Fortuny's multi-faceted career and his links with Proust, Wagner and Italian fascism. Illustrated. £35.00

ST JAMES'S PALACE: FROM LEPER HOSPITAL TO ROYAL COURT

Rufus Bird & Simon Thurley Announced two years ago as a Royal Collection Trust book, this wonderful survey is coming at last from Yale. £60.00

KNOLE: A PRIVATE VIEW OF ONE OF BRITAIN'S GREAT HOUSES

Robert Sackville-West Lavish book on this magnificent house, by its owner, now the thirteenth generation of Sackvilles. Knole appears in Woolf's Orlando as her protagonist's vast Elizabethan domain, more like a town than a dwelling. £47.95

PARISIAN BY DESIGN: INTERIORS BY DAVID JIMENEZ

Diane Dorrans Saeks Paris bohemia/flea market made smart for New York. £40.00

ARCHITECT OF OBSESSION: JOHN WOOD AND THE CREATION OF GEORGIAN BATH

Timothy Mowl & Brian Earnshaw From the publisher who bought us Cathryn Spence's gorgeous Nature's Favourite Child: Thomas Robins and the Art of the Georgian Garden, a new edition of the fascinating book on the architect of Georgian Bath, who was more interested in Stonehenge, druids and Solomon's Temple in Jerusalem than Augustan design principles. £37.00

TRAVEL

WHEN DREAMS COLLIDE: TRAVELS IN YUGOSLAVIA WITH REBECCA WEST

Nicholas Allan Using West's 1930s masterpiece Black Lamb, Grey Falcon as a vade mecum, Allan has written a wonderful, personal portrait of the countries that made up the former Yugoslavia. £25.00

TALES FROM THE BORDERLANDS: MAKING AND UNMAKING THE GALICIAN PAST

Omer Bartov Although focused on Galicia, this is the story of Europe's eastern borderlands before WW2, from the Baltic to the Balkans. £20.00

LANDSCAPES OF SILENCE: FROM CHILDHOOD TO THE ARCTIC

Hugh Brody A memoir about silence, from the mysterious things the adults didn't talk about during his childhood, to the vast silences of the Arctic that have occupied so much of his own adult life as writer and film maker. £20.00

HIGH: A JOURNEY ACROSS THE HIMALAYAS, THROUGH PAKISTAN, INDIA, BHUTAN, NEPAL AND CHINA

Erika Fatland, translated by Kari Dickson Coming so soon after her epic books around the old Soviet world, Sovietistan and The Border, the immense journey embodied by this title (and during the pandemic?!) is astounding. But this Swedish dynamo is always compelling and informative. £30.00

STALKING THE ATOMIC CITY: LIFE AMONG THE DECADENT AND THE DEPRAVED OF CHORNOBYL

Markizyan Kamysb, translated by Hanna Leliv & Reilly Costigan-Humes Energetic account of multiple break-ins to look at the desolation in the 1000-square-mile exclusion zone. pbk £12.99

TOURISTS: HOW THE BRITISH WENT ABROAD TO FIND THEMSELVES

Lucy Lethbridge Les anglais en vacances. Two centuries of problems securing a proper cup of tea. £20.00

TWO WHEELS GOOD: THE HISTORY AND MYSTERY OF THE BICYCLE

Jody Rosen From its invention in 1817 to its present-day revival – the ultimate sustainable machine that enabled colonial conquest, gentrification and a reduction of rural inbreeding... £25.00

LANDLINES

Raynor Winn From the author of The Salt Path and The Wild Silence – walking across Great Britain along the Cape Wrath Trail. £20.00

NATURE & GARDENS

BIRDGIRL: A YOUNG ENVIRONMENTALIST LOOKS TO THE SKIES IN SEARCH OF A BETTER FUTURE

Mya-Rose Craig The author is a remarkable young birder who has shared a platform with Greta Thunberg and received an honorary doctorate for her environmental work at the age of 17... £16.99

NEMESIS, MY FRIEND: JOURNEYS THROUGH THE TURNING TIMES

Jay Griffiths An almanac-turned-essay collection of seasons, cities and people across the world – and closer to home – by the author of Wild. From Little Toller, a small publishing house that consistently produces wonders. £18.00

THE ANCIENT WOODS OF SOUTH-EAST WALES

Oliver Rackham Though the pioneering dendrologist died in 2015, the chapters for this book were amongst his papers. pbk £20.00

TREE THIEVES: CRIME AND SURVIVAL IN THE WOODS

Lynsise Bourgon Tree-poaching and the ownership of wildernesses from Sherwood to the Amazon: a well-researched study of the black market for timber and its wider implications. £22.00

EDEN'S KEEPERS: THE LIVES AND GARDENS OF HUMPHREY WATERFIELD AND NANCY TENNANT

Sarah Barclay Together these two created the gardens at Hill Pasture and at Le Clos du Peyronnet in the south of France, not one but two earthly paradises. £25.00

PLANTA SAPIENS: UNMASKING PLANT INTELLIGENCE

Paco Calvo & Natalie Lawrence Plant biology meets cognitive science in this fascinating look at the inner lives of plants. £20.00

NO DIG: NURTURE YOUR SOIL TO GROW BETTER VEG WITH LESS EFFORT

Charles Dowding Mastering the art of minimal intervention. We don't know if Mr McGregor would approve but Dowding is THE no-dig guru, pioneering this approach and growing vast and succulent vegetables since 1983. £30.00

MARIA SIBYLLA MERIAN: CHANGING THE NATURE OF ART AND SCIENCE

Marieke van Delft & Hans Mulder et al A collection of essays about this most extraordinary C17th woman, artist, traveller and naturalist; looks at her methods and materials, her journey to Suriname, her entomological studies, her patrons and her lasting influence. Many illustrations. £50.00

CONSTANCE VILLIERS STUART IN PURSUIT OF PARADISE

Mary Ann Prior She was a prolific garden designer during the first half of the C20th, much influenced by Mughal and Moorish gardens. £30.00

FOOD

SMALL FIRES: AN EPIC IN THE KITCHEN

Rebecca May Johnson A memoir about cooking and thinking; Johnson's ideas are like the steam rising from a cooking pot, rising, swelling, merging, curling into arabesques. £14.99

HOTEL SPLENDIDE

Ludwig Bemelmans A re-issue of LB's famous and very funny memoir about working in a New York Hotel. He came to the US in 1914, aged sixteen, and worked at the 'Hotel Splendide' as he called it for the next three years. Chapter one is called 'The Animal Waiter'; chapter thirteen 'My Valet Lustgarten'... Illustrated with his own drawings. pbk £9.99

PERSIANA EVERYDAY

Sabrina Ghayour The queen of Lebanese cuisine goes quick and easy. £26.00

INDIA EXPRESS

Rukmini Iyer Iyer rattles her baking tray once again with a collection of vegan, vegetarian and pescatarian recipes. £22.00

MORO EASY

Samantha & Samuel Clark The two Sams' previous books were outstanding; now comes a recipe collection for when there's not time to make their legendary fennel-seeded roast pork belly... £30.00

ONE: SIMPLE ONE-PAN WONDERS

Jamie Oliver Oliver's latest is a collection of economical recipes – few ingredients, well-cooked. £28.00

FOR CHILDREN

CURTAIN UP!: BEHIND THE SCENES AT THE ROYAL OPERA HOUSE

Royal Opera House, illustrated by Lauren O'Hara Who wouldn't love a tour of the Royal Opera House, half an hour before a performance of 'Nutmcracker'? Figaro the opera cat takes us to try on the Mad Hatter's hat, adjust the tutu of the Sugar Plum Fairy, and rehearse a deadly fight scene from 'Romeo and Juliet'. Ages 6-9. £12.99

THE ROAR

Eoin McLaughlin, illustrated by Polly Dunbar Tortoise is having a very bad day – stuck on a rock, down a hole. It's not easy being a tortoise in fact... Another sweet story from the duo that created The Hug. Ages 3-5. £12.99

PAPER BOAT, PAPER BIRD

David Almond, illustrated by Kirsty Beautyman Mina, who we first met in Almond's miraculous Skellig many years ago, now encounters other-worldly wonders in Japan. Almond is one of the greatest living children's authors and here again he produces a quiet, restrained magic that is all his own. Ages 9-12. £9.99

THE STORY OF BABUR: PRINCE, EMPEROR, SAGE

Anuradha Sharma, illustrated by Jane Ray The Baburnama for children – a memoir of adventure, fame and all the trappings of a princely existence, yet combined with an exemplary life of the mind, and a powerful curiosity about the world around him. Wonderfully illustrated. Ages 7-11. £12.95

A DAY THAT'S OURS

Blake Nuto, illustrated by Vjara Boyadjieva A quietist pleasure: the last day before school begins, taken very gently. Ages 3-5. £12.99

AND EVERYTHING WILL BE GLAD TO SEE YOU

Ella Rzibridger, illustrated by Anna Shepeta An anthology of poetry by women. Ages 7+. £20.00

GREEK HEROES: TOP TEN MYTHS AND LEGENDS

Marcia Williams Heracles, Perseus et alia: a collection for the fairly young. Another book of classical tales written and illustrated by Marcia Williams. Ages 5-7. £12.99

HOW THE STARS CAME TO BE

Poonam Mistry Gorgeously illustrated fable about the origin of the stars: when the sun finds a girl weeping after a moonless night, fearing for her fisherman-father out on the dark sea, he smashes one of his rays to create the stars... Ages 3-6. £14.99

LITTLE BUNNY'S SLEEPLESS NIGHT

Carol Roth, illustrated by Valeri Gorbachev His friends Porcupine, Squirrel and co. all come along to help but in the end, Little Bunny comes to realise that sleeping in your own bed, on your own, is quite a relief... Ages 3-5. £12.99

VARENKA

Bernadette Watts A reprint of one of BW's earliest picture books, from 1971: Varenka lives in a forest and cannot bear to leave its animals and birds when war threatens. Soon she is sheltering several people and wonders how they can conceal themselves from the approaching soldiers. Set in an early C20th Russia/Siberia, this is a gentle tale of courage and faith. Ages 5-8. £12.99

TALES OF THE GREEK HEROES

Roger Lancelyn Green New edition of this wonderful classic. Ages 7-11. £12.99

THE ZEBRA'S GREAT ESCAPE

Katherine Rundell, illustrated by Sara Ogilvie A free-spirited imp sets out on an adventure to help her friend the zebra and ends up freeing of a whole menagerie of animals... very cheerful stuff from a most ingenious author. For ages 5-7. £14.99

MOUSE HEART

Fleur Hitchcock Thrilling historical tale of derring-do, loyalty and betrayal set in a theatre. Ages 8-11. pbk £7.99

BIRDS OF A FEATHER

Lauren Fairgrieve, illustrated by Kate Read Goldfinch, magpie, blackbird, blue tit, robin, kingfisher etc: ten birds, their habitats and habits. Some of the illustrations can be pressed out to make 3-D birds... Ages 7-10. £12.99

ONCE UPON A TIME IN PERSIA

Sabar Doustar, illustrated by Daniela Tieni A young girl does not recognise herself in a mirror but only in the world around her. Richly illustrated. Ages 4-7. £12.99

UNRAVELLER

Frances Hardinge A boy has a strange and unique gift: he can unravel curses, in a world where everyone can cast them. Hardinge has been writing for years but only reached a huge audience when The Lie Tree won the Costa Prize overall – the first author to do so since Philip Pullman. Excellent, imaginative writing – and thinking – for ages 11-15. £14.99

THE WORLDS WE LEAVE BEHIND

A F Harrold, illustrated by Levi Pinfold Friendships lost and found in parallel worlds: a poignant novel complemented by Pinfold's mysterious illustrations. Ages 8-12. £12.99

THE WILLOW PATTERN STORY

Alan Drummond A reprint of this charming, beautifully illustrated children's book, first published in 1992. For ages 4-9. £12.99

PASSIONATE ABOUT PENGUINS

Owen Davey Penguins galore – from the author/illustrator of Curious about Crocodiles, Fanatical about Frogs, etc. Ages 7-11. £12.99

TALES OF BRAVE AND BRILLIANT GIRLS FROM THE GREEK MYTHS

Rosie Dickins It's an odd state of things if publishers believe that girls need elided versions of classical tales – but far better they read this than none at all, of course. Circe, Demeter, Penelope, Artemis et alia. £12.99

SOME OF OUR RECENT FAVOURITES

IMPOSSIBLE

Erri De Luca, translated by N. S. Thompson Two men go walking in the Dolomites, but not together; one falls to his death, the other reports the body. Is it coincidence that they knew each other in earlier years, and that one had betrayed the other? The taut cat-and-mouse between the investigating magistrate and the suspect – an old political hand in solitary confinement – and their somewhat Socratic dialogue make for an elegant two-hander with much to be relished. £14.99

THE GREAT GODDEN

Meg Rosoff A slim, irresistible coming-of-age story in the tradition of Bonjour Tristesse and Call Me By Your Name, in which the arrival of two American brothers wreaks havoc on an English family over a long, hazy Cornish summer. hbk £12.99 / pbk £7.99

BURNING MAN: THE ASCENT OF D H LAWRENCE

Frances Wilson Reframes an unruly passage of Lawrence's life – from Cornwall in 1915, to Italy and Central America – into a neat Dantean triptych: Inferno, Purgatory and Paradise. Whether you loathe or adore him, Wilson disarms you with a dreaming, sensitive, tortured figure that you can't help but feel captivated by. hbk £25.00 / pbk £12.99

LOOKING FOR THEOPHRASTUS: TRAVELS IN SEARCH OF A LOST PHILOSOPHER

Laura Beatty LB could turn straw into gold. Here she describes chancing across the writings of a rather obscure Greek philosopher, and the wonders and illuminations that followed. Transformative. £16.99

THE LAST DAYS OF ROGER FEDERER: AND OTHER ENDINGS

Geoff Dyer Written during lockdown, this is a book by a writer on top of his game. The ostensible subject is endings, last things, work produced in 'late style'... But, this being Geoff Dyer, it's about the contents of his brain: lifelong obsessive preoccupations with certain writers, musicians, filmmakers, painters. There is also an essay on Roger Federer. Idiosyncratic, funny, highly 'relatable'... £20.00

HOMESICKNESS

Colin Barrett A stellar second collection: each character and action is precisely observed, each story shot through with humour and pathos. Humane and wistful, these stories – mostly set in Co. Mayo, where the author grew up – also contain the strange and unexpected, the ancient rubbing against the modern. A very powerful Irish voice, still relatively unheard. pbk £14.99

THE MODERN FLOWER PRESS: PRESERVING THE BEAUTY OF NATURE

Melissa Richardson & Amy Fielding The 'green fingers' behind JamJar Flowers chronicles the botanical history of flower pressing, from foxgloves to fritillaries, through lampshades, lilies, oshibana, jasmine, and many more delights. Sumptuously illustrated, this is also a handy how-to guide for pressing at home. £30.00

